Suspects Found In Kentfield In Car By Sheriff's Officers

Three Tamalpais High School girl students and two College of Marin Negro youths were arrested last night for allegedly participating in a pre-dance "pot-smoking" party while parked in plush Kent Woodlands last Friday night.

A sixth suspect, Roy Morgan, 19, who was involved as a juvenile in June 3, 1965, roundup of marijuana suspects in southern Marin County, was being sought.

The three youths and two of the girls are jointly charged with felony possession of the weed. The third girl, 17, was booked in county juvenile hall to face a marijuana possession charge in juvenile court.

Booked in county jail last night were Deborah Elizabeth Bullock, 18, of 374 Marin Avenue, Tamalpais Valley; Jenny Astrid Veggeby, 18, of 2 Upper Hill Road, Mill Valley; Jim Clearance Durbin, 20, of 27 Pacheco Street, and Michael Holloway, 19, of 16 Dutton Court, both Marin City.

All were released on $276 bail each. They are scheduled for arraignment in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Sheriff's Inspector A. V. Menjou and Jesse P. Foster, state narcotics agent, said they heard several youths and girls were expected to smoke marijuana prior to attending a club dance in the college gymnasium Friday night.

BEFORE DANCE

The dance, they heard, was going to be "a real swinging affair."

Inspector Menjou said he and Foster were parked in an unmarked automobile when they saw a car containing the three youths and a station wagon occupied by the three girls drive through the Kent Woodlands entrance and park near Magnolia Avenue and Woodland Road about 9:10 p.m.

TRIO OF YOUTHS

The officers said the trio of youths entered the station wagon, and the six drove to an isolated place at the end of Crown Road and parked. There, according to Menjou, the officers observed smoking. They approached the station wagon, ordered the six from the car and allegedly found about half a dozen partially smoked cigarettes in the immediate vicinity.

In addition, they said, they confiscated a cigarette one youth was attempting to pass to another. A small match box containing what appeared to be marijuana was also found, Menjou said.

SIX SUSPECTS

The six suspects were taken to the sheriff's office, questioned, then released late that night. Menjou said Foster took the cigarettes and match box to state narcotics laboratories in San Francisco, where the contents were found to be marijuana.

Menjou said the complaint was issued by the district attorney's office, and warrants for arrest were obtained.

He said source of the weed was not immediately learned.

Morgan, of House 130, Marin City, and still being sought, was charged in the 1965 roundup with sale of marijuana. He was then 17 years old, however, and his case was handled by juvenile authorities.

Marijuana Witness Takes Fifth

Frank Bonomolo of Novato, described by Police Chief Robert DiGrazia as the star witness in the trial of another Novato man on a charge of selling marijuana, was served with a court order last night by Novato police, ordering him to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court.

Bonomolo yesterday took the Fifth Amendment at the preliminary hearing in Marin County Municipal Court for John W. Rundle of 1363 Cambridge Street, Novato, who was arrested March 25 and charged with selling marijuana.

Chief DiGrazia said the court order served on Bonomolo last night at his home at 201 San Felipe Way, orders him to appear at 2 p.m. Thursday in Superior Court prior to Rundle's hearing.

The preliminary hearing is then scheduled to resume at 3 p.m. Thursday before Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Marin Municipal Court.

LAMP PLUG FIRE

Six-year-old Ernest Genberg of 60 Fairfax Street, Apt. 10, San Rafael, plugged in a defective lamp today in a closet and started the fire shown below, which did a total of $6,900 damage to his family's apartment and that of Judy T. Bush, Apt. 11 upstairs. At right, Fire Chief Vance Trivett (left) talks to the boy while Kenneth Mazza of the fire department prevention bureau looks on. Ernest was home with his brother, 4-year-old Tony, and baby-sitter Caroline Sheehan of 355 Canal Street, Apt. 3. She said the older boy ran from his bedroom and cried "My shirt is on fire." Miss Sheehan got the boys out and called firemen after trying in vain to put out the blaze. All but $300 of the damage was to the lower apartment. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

U.S. Jet Downs New Russ Plane

Hanoi Pledges Fight

SAIGON — An American supersonic jet fighter shot down an MIG-21 today over North Viet Nam, a U.S. spokesman announced.

The MIG, newest and fastest type used by the Communists in Asia, was hit by Sidewinder missiles in a brief aerial duel 65 miles northeast of the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi, the spokesman said.

It was downed by an F4-C Phantom fighter in a dogfight in which two Phantoms attacked two MIG-21s.

Neither of the U.S. planes was damaged, the spokesman said.

FIRST KILL

It was the first MIG-21 kill of the Viet Nam war and the eighth Soviet-built fighter downed in the conflict. The previous seven were the older - version MIG-17s.

The pilot of the destroyed MIG was believed to have ejected before his flaming plane crashed, the spokesman said.

STANDOFF DUEL

Two of the delta-winged Communist fighters and two Phantoms dueled undamaged to a standoff north of Hanoi yesterday. American planes and the Soviet-built MIGs had clashed three times Saturday.

As against the eight MIGs shot down so far, three U.S. jets have been lost in air-to-air combat. MIGs downed two U.S. Air Force F-105 Thunderchiefs April 4, 1965, 80 miles south of Hanoi. A Phantom failed to return after tangling with MIG fighters in the area of Red China's Hainan Island April 9.

In the fight yesterday, two Air Force Phantoms got off 11 or 12 Sidewinder and Sparrow air-to-air missiles at their delta-winged foe but none hit the mark, the U.S. spokesman said. The MIGs also took some shots at the Phantoms without scoring.

Despite the heavy air blows, there was no evidence of any softening in the attitude of North Viet Nam's Communist

COMMENT ON MIG

'No Sanctuary' In Viet Nam

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON—A State Department spokesman, replying to questions on the possibility that new model MIG jet fighters encountered in Viet Nam may have come from Red China bases, said today "there is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam War.

But the spokesman, press officer Robert J. McCloskey, said he had no information the MIG-21s came from China.

In stating that "there is no sanctuary," McCloskey said he was repeating a position set forth by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in the past.

McCloskey declined to go into whether the "no sanctuary" policy means American planes may chase enemy jets into Communist China if the Red craft flee across the frontier.

Over the past few days, the high-performance MIGs have taken to the air to challenge U.S. Aerial superiority over North Viet Nam as the American craft struck closer to the country's capital, Hanoi, and its chief port of Haiphong.

McCloskey said, when asked whether the MIG-21s came from Communist Chinese bases: "We have no information that would lead to such a conclusion."

In London, Russian-trained Communist Vietnamese were reported today to be piloting the Soviet-supplied MIG-21 supersonic jet fighters now in action

Marincello Petitions Circulating

Opponents of the Marincello project today announced they have begun circulating a referendum petition in an effort to block the planned development on the Golden Gate headlands.

George Wheelwright, acting chairman of the Golden Gate Headlands Committee, said that although the referendum petition needs 6,200 authenticated signatures to qualify for a ballot "it is apparent that many more will be obtained."

The petition specifies only the Tennessee Valley Access Road ordinance, approved by the county board of supervisors as the first detail of the precise development plan, but the committee said the petition is "tantamount to blocking the entire Marincello project."

Wheelwright said this ordinance provides the first legal opportunity for his committee to take action against the headlands community.

"That approval was given by ordinance, and that ordinance is subject to referendum. We have the best possible legal advice to that effect," he declared.

The committee contends that when the requisite number of signatures on the referendum petition have been verified it will be mandatory that the Board of Supervisors either repeal the ordinance or call an election.

Supervisors Seek Poverty Work Money

Marin County Supervisors today took steps to reinstate the application for neighborhood youth corps funds—an application that Marin's former War on Poverty Director Walter Bremond held up. (Douglas J. Quiett was named Bremond's temporary replacement. See page 3.)

County Administrator Alan Bruce told supervisors it will require a county reserve of $3,000 at the most to meet requirements of county support under the application. Supervisors transferred this amount from unbudgeted reserves.

The project, three months of work for 30 high school dropouts, would be cleaning up and painting of buildings at the old Naval Net Depot at Tiburon.

Bremond, without consulting supervisors, held the application up because he did not believe that $1.25 an hour to be paid was realistic.

Farm Employment Up For California

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California farm employment swelled seasonally to 276,700 in mid-April, up nearly 20,000 from March, the State Employment Department reported today.

About 9,600 more workers were employed on farms in mid-April than the same month in 1965.

ASKS STANDARDS

Auto Industry Reverses Stand On Safety Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reversing its previous position, the automobile industry called today for "effective and forceful governmental machinery for setting vehicle safety standards without delay."

John S. Bugas, vice president of Ford Motor Co., told a House committee in behalf of the auto manufacturers:

"We favor a strong role for the federal government in setting vehicle safety performance standards."

The industry contended in earlier congressional testimony that it should be allowed to set car safety standards. But many members of Congress have demanded strong federal standards.

In a 64-page statement read from the House Commerce Committee, Bugas said, "Today's U.S.-built cars are the safest in our history."

But he added that the rising traffic toll demands "development of nationally uniform and legally binding vehicle safety standards."

"We believe," he said, "that the federal government should have the ultimate authority and duty under appropriate guidelines to establish the standards applicable to the manufacture and first sale of the vehicle, and

Munich Awarded 1972 Olympic Summer Games

ROME (AP) — Munich was awarded the Summer Games and Sapporo, Japan, the Winter events of the 1972 Olympics today.

In one of the most tension-packed voting session of its history, the International Olympic Committee chose Munich over Detroit, Montreal, and Madrid to give Germany its first Olympics since 1936 when Hitler was in power.

Then the IOC caused a sensation by naming Sapporo over Banff, Canada; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Lahti, Finland.

IOC President Avery Brundage said undoubtedly "one reason for awarding the games to Sapporo was the fact that the 1940 games would have gone to Sapporo."

Those games were never held because of World War Two.

Damage Put At $37,000 In Muir Beach Home Fire

Fire raged through a $55,000 home on Shoreline Highway at Muir Beach early today, doing $37,000 damage before it was finally contained some two hours later.

Hampered by lack of water in the area, county firemen drained the home's swimming pool and three fire trucks' supplies to fight the flames.

The 10-room home, at Franks Valley Road and Shoreline Highway, is owned by Jack C. Magruder and Calvin M. Garrison.

Garrison awoke at 4:45 a.m., smelled smoke, and roused the other occupants, who included his 20-year-old daughter Judy, and her guest, Martha Pasley.

Three units from the Marin County Fire Department fought the blaze, from Throckmorton Ridge, Marin City, and Woodacre stations.

Cause of the fire was not determined, according to County Chief Louis V. Bloom, but the origin was pinpointed to the area around the home's oil furnace.

Valenti Quits LBJ For Hollywood

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hollywood has turned again to the national political scene for a new czar of the movie industry—this time to President Johnson's aide and admirer, Jack J. Valenti.

Valenti

The 44-year-old son of Italian immigrants quit his $30,000-a-year job as Johnson's special assistant yesterday to become president and chief executive officer of the Motion Picture Producers Assn. of America.

His new salary, though undisclosed, will be much higher. Although he calls himself a "movie buff," Valenti hasn't had much time for movies since Johnson transplanted him from Texas to the nation's capital on the day John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

Like his two predecessors at the movie association, native-Texan Valenti made his name in Washington. The other two were one-time Republican National Chairman and Postmaster General Will Hays and Eric Johnston, who parlayed a term as president of the United States Chamber of Commerce into a career as an internationalist foreign policy adviser to the presidents of the United States

Heart Implant Patient Dies

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Marcel DeRudder, died at 2:04 a.m. today of a possible rupture of his bronchia or trachea as a partial artificial heart device implanted in his chest almost six days ago continued to function.

The retired coal miner from Westville, Ill., who had suffered serious heart trouble for many years, had lived for six days in the quiet world of unconsciousness following the dramatic surgery last Thursday.

A Methodist Hospital spokesman said DeRudder's death was "sudden" and "unexplained."

He said said "was probably produced by a rupture of the bronchia or trachea," but that the exact cause of death could not be determined until completion of a post-mortem examination.

Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, head surgeon of a team which performed the operation, was in attendance when DeRudder died, the spokesman said.

LISTENING BASES SHUT IN PAKISTAN

Suspension Of Military Aid Results In Closing Of System Monitoring Russia

By DONALD H. MAY

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The United States has been forced to close some of its listening posts in northern Pakistan near the borders of Russia and Red China, it was disclosed today.

The installations were used for remote monitoring of nuclear tests and rocket launchings, and were part of a multi-million-dollar complex operated by the United States in Pakistan.

LEFT BEHIND

U.S. equipment, most of it commercially available and none of it involving anything secret, had to be left behind when the shutdown order came, it was said.

According to reliable sources, Pakistan withdrew permission for operation of some of the stations after the United States suspended its military aid last September.

U.S. military aid to both Pakistan and India was halted shortly after a shooting war erupted between the two countries over Kashmir.

SEMI-SECRET

The monitoring complex has been one of the semi-secrets of the cold war—widely known but never officially discussed. Some of the monitoring devices could detect rocket launchings deep inside the Soviet Union by the heat produced by the rocket blasts.

The shutdown of the stations has become part of a controversy within the Johnson administration how quickly to resume U.S. military aid to Pakistan.

Officials in the Defense Department and the Central Intelligence Agency have urged more rapid resumption of military aid programs in order to get the monitoring stations reopened.

They also argue that the United States has given more than $1 billion in military aid to Pakistan over the years and that this investment should not be allowed to go down the drain or be absorbed in Red Chinese military assistance. In recent months, Pakistan has been forging closer ties with Peking.

The State Department, on the other hand, has argued that the United States should never again permit itself to be put in the position it was last August and September when it turned out Pakistan and India were using U.S. equipment —intended as a defense against Communist aggression — against each other.

DIPLOMATIC VIEW

Up to now the diplomatic view has prevailed. The United States has agreed to sell "nonlethal" military equipment — trucks, construction equipment and the like —to both India and Pakistan.

But Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara told a Senate hearing recently that the United States was "not yet prepared" to renew military aid to either country. He said such a resumption would depend on further reconciliation of the conflict which divides them.

Electrical Workers Vote Truce

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Operations were back to normal at this missile base today after striking electricians voted a 30-day truce in their dispute with United Technology Center.

The truce in the eight-day strike of International Union of Electrical Workers members was reached yesterday in a five-hour session in San Francisco between federal mediators, union officials and UTC representatives.

UTC electrical workers at Cape Kennedy voted to ratify the interim agreement yesterday night and p ickets were withdrawn from five entrances to this space center.

Only 116 of the 1,150 construction workers had honored the picket lines Monday and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said there was only minor slowdown on a few building projects.

Storms Sweep Across Texas

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — Violent thunderstorms swept across drenched northeast Texas yesterday, threatening to make flooding conditions more serious and adding to damages that already reach into the millions.

Tornadoes struck in south Texas and winds up to 75 miles per hour lashed the Corpus Christi area. At least five damaging twisters were reported in Texas yesterday.

A packing plant was damaged and trees uprooted at Marshall and a second tornado in the Marshall area knocked down power lines and swept away the roof of a press box at a baseball park.

Another twister dipped to the ground north of the Mineola area. It caused heavy damage on the Keysey Ross farm.

Earlier, tornadoes struck the town of Kenedy and Runge in south Texas, leaving about 250 persons homeless and causing extensive damage to business buildings.

Red Cross officials said floodwaters had entered 50 homes in Longview and that about 50 families would probably be evacuated from the Roosevelt area of Dallas.

The Weather Bureau issued a tornado watch early today for sections of east central and northeastern Louisiana, and central and southwestern Mississippi. Severe thunderstorms and hail and damaging winds also were forecast.

Douglas Quiett Named Temporary Director

Douglas J. Quiett, 26, who has liven in Marin City since infancy, was named today as temporary director of Marin County Community Relations Services, replacing Walter Bremond.

The county board of supervisors made the appointment this morning on recommendation of the Marin City Community Action Committee, which unanimously approved naming Quiett during a closed meeting last night.

Quiett told the Marin City group he had been offered the post by County Administrator Alan Bruce.

The board, which had not consulted with the Marin City Action Committee prior to Bremond's dismissal last Thursday, also scheduled a joint session with the committee to discuss "better understanding and better relationships."

The joint meeting was asked by Rogers Jones, who replaced Arthur L. Brown as Community Action Committee chairman after the committee ousted Brown from the chairmanship Sunday.

It was set tentatively for 8 p.m. May 6 at the Civic Center.

Supervisors debated at length whether the countywide advisory committee on the War on Poverty program, which includes Community Action Committee members, should be included, but left that unresolved, with Bruce to make a recommendation later.

Quiett, who has been a community worker under Bremond since last June, was the senior employee of the remaining staff.

Jones, said all 10 committee members present last night voted that Quiett be temporary director. Four committee members were absent.

Jones said the meeting was closed because it involved "the hiring of a director."

At first announcement, the meeting was scheduled to be held either at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church or the Marin City Community Lounge. It was held at the community relations staff office on Drake Avenue at 8 p.m.

Quiett said he wanted the committee's concurrence in his appointment.

The committee, an advisory group to the War on Poverty program, protested because it was not consulted prior to the firing of Bremond.

Quiett, former chairman of the Marin Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality, has been a resident of Marin City since he was 2.

He attended Marin City, Richardson Bay and Tamalpais High schools and College of Marin.

Hedy Shoplift Trial Enters Final Argument

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hedy Lamarr was preoccupied by physical, emotional and financial problems, and she had no intention of stealing anything, she told jurors in her petty theft trial.

The defense rested its case yesterday after the actress spent a full day testifying to her innocence.

Final arguments were to be heard today.

The actress, 51, was arrested on a shoplifting charge last Jan. 27.

College Counselor Seeks Court Restraint Of Wife

Samuel N. LeCount, counselor at College of Marin and one-time candidate for county superintendent of schools, has filed in Marin Superior Court for divorce from his wife, Lucile I. LeCount.

He alleges extreme cruelty, and obtained an order temporarily restraining Mrs. LeCount from alleged harassment by constant telephone calls at his office and residence.

LeCount, also former college adult school head, further charged that she once climbed onto the hood of his car when he was departing and refused to leave.

He said he became ill and nervous as result of this behavior, and the actions of Mrs. LeCount are jeopardizing his job.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson scheduled 2 p.m. on May 3 for Mrs. LeCount to show why a preliminary injunction preventing her from annoying LeCount should not be issued.

LeCount's suit asks for his share of community property, which includes property in Lagunitas, a 1956 automobile, and household furnishings.

The coupe wed in Kentfield June 4, 1955, and separated Jan. 15. They had no children, but LeCount lives at 43 Rosemont Avenue, San Anselmo, with a daughter, Josie, 16, from a previous marriage. Mrs. LeCount resides at 27 Sierra Avenue, San Anselmo, with her daughter, Frederikke, 14, and a son, Norman, 18.

Zucker Asks Model County Zoning Law

Possibility of a "model" county zoning ordinance which could be adopted entirely or in part by the cities of Marin was broached yesterday by County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker.

Zucker, who has already expressed dissatisfaction with the county's present ordinance, told the County Planning Commission that ordinance revision should be given high priority and should be studied in conjunction with cities.

A uniform ordinance would provide similar land use designations for county and cities. "We would be speaking the same language," Zucker said.

The planning commission liked the suggestion but thought it would be difficult to get accord from the cities. Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. said he thought it would be something like trying to get unanimity among the United Nations.

"Good luck," Commission Chairman Margaret Azevedo said.

Sausalito Trustees Focus On Two Grades

Sausalito School District trustees last night agreed to focus for the time being on appraising the seventh and eighth grade programs and seeing how they might be improved.

The decision came following a presentation of a districct "canopy program" by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato. Amato discussed the district's present "total program" including kindergarten through eighth grade and preschool and child care.

Under the "canopy program," he said, "Our aims are to try to diagnose individual needs of the student and prescribe learning experiences for his particular needs." He spelled out three areas—instruction which is primarily academic; special services which include counseling, library service, health, remedial reading, and auxiliary services which encompass items such as teacher aides, playground supervisors, the study center and the cafeteria.

A letter was acknowledged from the county counsel advising that no portion of the Central School property can be sold without first consulting heirs who gave the property.

The building study committee will review subcommittee reports at 8 p.m., May 3 in Richardson Bay School Library and make recommendations to the board on May 16, Amato announced.

Trustees will hold a special meeting May 2 at 8 p.m. in the district office to hear salary proposals of teachers and classified employees.

Resignation of Jane Weinstein, pre-school teacher, was accepted effective April 29. Miss Weinstein announcing she is moving to Bogata, Colombia.

Board Backed By Citizens In Marin City

Members of the Marin City Home Owners and Improvement Assn. today gave county supervisors a strong vote of confidence in its efforts to solve Marin City problems.

"We appreciate what you have done and are ready, willing and able to be of service," Theo Barron, an associate member, told the board.

He said there was need for better communication between the Community Action Committee, which advises on War on Poverty programs, and other groups in Marin City.

He said the association believes that law and order should be supported and the curfew law should be enforced.

Jesse E. Berry, another association member, told supervisors that insurance companies have been giving homeowners notice in the last 30 days that insurance rates are going to go up in Marin City.

Barron concluded by saying the association believes the War on Poverty can be effective and help people in need, "but we don't want to see it destroy Marin City."

against Americans in Viet Nam.

The Russias have been sending technical advisers and personnel to Hanoi for some time to train the Communists there in the use of Soviet-supplied ground-to-air missiles and of MIG planes, informed sources said.

The Communist North Vietnamese previously have been flying the older version of the MIG fighters.

From scant information available it was understood that they have lately been trained in the use of the most up-to-date version of the Russian supersonic fighters.

The Russians themselves were not believed to be piloting the planes in action, though there was nothing official to confirm this assumption.

U.C. Frosh, Soph Cut Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Freshman and sophomore classes at large University of California campuses such as Berkeley might be eliminated under a Senate-passed resolution now pending in the Assembly.

The upper house unanimously adopted the resolution yesterday. It asks the Coordinating Council for Higher Education to look into the possibility of cutting the lower division at big campuses.

A report is to be turned into the 1967 legislature, if the Assembly also adopts the proposal.

Mrs. Newman Leaves Tiburon Commission

Mrs. Helen Newman has resigned from the Tiburon Planning Commission, chairman Stephen H. Nash reported today.

Mrs. Newman, who was vice chairman and had served on the commission since its inception, resigned due to ill health, Nash said. Nash said he will meet with the city council in closed session May 5 to choose a successor. Her term expires July 19, 1967.

Burglars Get $1,635 Loot In Apartment

Burglars, possibly the ring of pipe wrench break-in artists which has struck recently in the Alto area, looted the apartment of Horace E. Silverfoote, 10 Harbor Vista Drive, Mill Valley, of an estimated $1,635 in household articles, cash, and other items.

Silverfoote told sheriff's officers he returned home from Oakland and didn't realize he had been burgled until he noticed a $125 television set missing from a bedroom.

He said he then discovered other loot included a tape recorder, a camera, a movie projector, a man's diamond ring, a $600 coin collection, $75 cash, a transister radio and two credit cards had been taken.

Means of entry was unknown. Deputies said only a small mark on the front doorknob may have connected it with use by the intruders of a pipe wrench.

Jack E. Rutherford, 81 Bosque Road, Fairfax, reported his home was entered via an unlocked rear kitchen door. Taken were a $700 television set and a $12 wristwatch, deputies said.

Officers said a burglary alarm at Creative Merchandisers, Inc., 285 Jacoby Street, California Park, went off, and they found the front door had been smashed. Entry was not believed gained, however.

State Asks U.S. Freeway Money

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A resolution asking that California be allowed to keep $230 million in federal freeway funds refused by San Francisco was approved by the Senate yesterday.

Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, author of the resolution, said with federal permission about $100 million would help build the Century Freeway in Los Angeles while the balance could be used elsewhere in the state.

The San Francisco Board of supervisors recently turned down proposed interstate highway routes for the city, disqualifying themselves for the funds.

Pastore Battles For Rent Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., is pledging a fight to restore a $12-million appropriation for rent subsidies that was cut from a supplemental money bill yesterday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The $30-million appropriation originally requested by President Johnson had been cut by the House to $12 million. The funds would permit the federal government to pay the difference between 25 per cent of the family's income and the rent.

Almonte Vote Will Depend On Petition

Whether there is an election to fill one seat on the Almonte Sanitary District Board depends on a petition being circulated in the district.

"It's either no election or, if the petition procedure is followed, there would be an election June 7 but there would be no printed name on the ballot," Board Chairman Robert A. Alexander said today.

The board got into the fix a couple months ago when it agreed to changes in county election procedure to consolidate the district election with the June primary. In the process, the board had insufficient time to comply with filing procedures and no one filed for the term of A. R. Teather, who resigned in February. His position is now filled by Herbert E. Davis, an appointee.

Alexander reported today that, according to county counsel opinion, an election may be held June 7 if someone in the district circulates a petition, getting signatures of five per cent of registered voters.

WAR

leaders. A statement by President Ho Chi Minh, broadcast by Hanoi, repeated the usual North Vietnamese conditions for peace and said the Red regime would fight until they were achieved.

In the south, the Viet Cong eluded three major U.S. ground operations but hit hard in the Mekong River delta, South Viet Nam's rice bowl, where American forces do not operate in strength. The guerrillas struck strategic hamlets and outposts in four provinces, including the Phu Nhuan "new life" hamlet in Vinh Binh Province south of Saigon, where they inflicted heavy casualties.

At Da Nang, Catholic leaders said today they will stage massive demonstrations in the northern provinces demanding punishment for leaders of Buddhist-inspired rioting.

Father Ho, leader of the Catholic community on the outskirts of this Buddhist-dominated city, said the demonstrations would begin tomorrow despite warnings from the Buddhist "struggle force" that such protests would be considered acts of "traitorism."

The Catholics said if they are menaced by "outside elements" they will ask the Vietnamese National Party to join them and protect the demonstrators.

Fire, Explosions Wreck Factory

BERKELEY (AP)—Fire and explosions, touched off by cans of paint and lacquer, wrecked the Industrial Chemical Co. today.

Two workmen escaped unhurt. The explosions, heard four blocks away on the East Shore Freeway, blew out the main door and ripped off a section of roof.

Gromyko May Visit Pope Paul In Vatican

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will visit the Vatican tomorrow for a history-making audience with Pope Paul VI, a reliable Vatican source said today.

MUNICH

had so recently had the Summer Games — in Tokyo in 1964.

H. W. Hoppener, executive director of the Canadian Olympic Association, said Munich's victory indicated that "the merit of candidate cities was hardly the main issue."

The vote indicates that the factor which played in favor of Munich was only the desire to bring the Olympic Games back to Europe, said Hoppener.

"I am very disappointed in view of the fact that there are more than 120 national Olympic committees around the world whose job is to make a decision.

The IOC decision caused deep bitterness among the contending cities that had hoped to win at least one of the sites for Canada or the United States.

Munich had been clearly favored over all its competitors as the IOC went in for the closed-door vote.

But Banff, trying for the third time to get the Winter Games, had gone into the vote reportedly even or slightly ahead of Sapporo.

Woman Injured By Window Glass In Sausalito

A San Francisco woman, baby sitting yesterday in Sausalito, suffered multiple cuts on her right arm and leg when she reportedly walked into a glass window at the home of Peter Sloss at 37 Glen Court.

Sausalito firemen reported Miss Velasquez was fortunate in that Joe McNavish, a Sears Roebuck and Co. appliance man from San Rafael, was working on an appliance in the Sloss home when the accident happened at 11:55 a.m.

He heard the crash of broken glass, walked into the room where Miss Velasquez was lying on the floor, and quickly put wash cloths on the wounds to stem the flow of blood.

Corte Madera Boy Found In 'Fort' Near Railroad

Corte Madera police arrested a 14-year-old runaway Corte Madera boy yesterday near the railroad spur to Larkspur, where they found a "fort" with blankets, chairs, and a quantity of wine and liquor stolen Saturday night from the John R. Polach home at 53 Hickory Avenue, Corte Madera.

Police said the boy and a 15-year-old friend from Larkspur jumped out of some bushes and ran as they approached.

They radioed ahead to Larkspur police, who apprehended the boys. The Larkspur boy was released to his parents. The Corte Madera lad, reported missing by his parents Sunday night, was booked as a runaway in Juvenile Hall.

Tomales Bay Survey Funds Asked Of U.S.

Congress today was asked to appropriate funds so the Army Corps of Engineers can do a survey of Tomales Bay.

The project was one of those included in a request for nearly $11.8 million to cover California Navigation projects. It is $886,000 more than President Johnson has suggested for fiscal 1967.

The appeal for what was termed a modest addition was presented to a House appropriations subcommittee by Lachlan M. Richards, executive vice president of the California Navigation Conference, and Robert H. Langner, secretary of the Marine Affairs Conference.

Langner contended that the state leads the nation in exports yet only five per cent of the Army engineers' civil projects budget is being spent here, and less than five per cent of that money is going for navigation projects.

SAFETY

that the states should be encouraged to enact similar standards and enforce them during the vehicle's useful life."

The industry reversal came after adverse reaction among congressmen to its previous position. Industry spokesmen were told their point of view had little chance of being accepted.

In explanation of his call for a role for the states, Bugas pointed out that after its first sale, a vehicle would be subject only to state standards.

Bugas' statement also endorsed administration proposals for research into accidents and for development of highway safety programs. It went one step beyond the administration bill's provision that the secretary of commerce — or secretary of transportation if such a position is created — have the power to set safety standards if he deems them necessary.

Three weeks ago Bugas urged the Senate Commerce Committee to let the industry show what it can do voluntarily before any government standards are imposed.

He also said then that federal standards were not necessary but that Congress could always pass legislation later if it was not satisfied with industry efforts.

In his testimony today, Bugas objected to some parts of the administration bill, such as "too severe" penalties and the use of broad terms that refer to standards as "appropriate" and "adequate."

The new industry position was outlined initially to members of the Commerce Committee late yesterday.

Assembly Toughens Firebomb Penalties

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly today approved a much-disputed bill toughening penalties for possession of firebombs, such as the Molotov cocktails thrown during last August's Watts riots.

'Not Horsing Around,' Spillway Plunger Says

One of three men who fell Friday down the spillway of Kent Lake dam yesterady denied a sheriff's report that he and a friend "had a few beers and were horsing around" when they fell.

Actually, said Frank Clay from his bed at Marin General Hospital, he was going to the rescue of David Volberg, who had fallen a few minutes earlier.

"And we'd only had one beer when it happened," Clay said.

The near-tragedy climaxed an outing by Clay, a 22-year-old heavy equipment operator of 347 Via Casitas, Greenbrae; Volberg, 23, of 41 Grove Street, San Rafael, and Bryan Lindelli, 19, of 60 Tamalpais Avenue, San Anselmo.

Clay said he and Lindelli were swimming in the lake when Volberg fell. Going to help Volberg, Lindelli made it safely down the spillway, but Clay lost his footing on the 45-degree slope and plummeted to the bottom.

Volberg was released from Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco Saturday after being treated for cuts and bruises. Clay, who suffered a broken right arm and severe cuts and burns, said he expects to be released from Marin General Hospital Thursday.

Tomorrow will be his only appearance in the county. He will emphasize to teen-agers the need for mental alertness, highway courtesy and safe mechanical condition of cars.

Princess Rips Report She Was Cool To Jackie

PARIS (UPI) —Princess Grace of Monaco abandoned her royal reserve today to scold a newspaper which implied that she and Jacqueline Kennedy were cool to each other at a charity ball in Seville, Spain, last week.

The American-born princess wrote to the Paris edition of the New York Herald Tribune, saying she was "disappointed" with the newspaper's "choice of photograph and comments regarding the meeting between Mrs. Kennedy and myself at the Seville Red Cross Ball."

The Herald Tribune printed a picture last Tuesday showing Mrs. Kennedy smiling at the camera, half-turned away from the princess, whose eyes were downcast and whose face appeared somber.

The picture caption said: "Princess Grace of Monaco and Mrs. John F. Kennedy seem to have little to say to each other at the Seville Red Cross Ball. They sat on either side of the host, the Duke of Medinacelli, but hardly spoke to each other. Reports blamed it on fatigue."

Princess Grace wrote that she was "delighted to meet Mrs. Kennedy again, for whom I have great admiration and respect.

"If there was any coolness or fatigue that evening, it was caused only by some of the many dozens of photographers who pushed, shoved and relentlessly pursued us all night."

She signed the letter "Grace Kelly Grimaldi." The newspaper titled it, "Royal Rebuke."

Viet Protesters

Two members of the Viet Nam Day Committee in San Francisco will be among speakers at a public meeting in Olney Hall, College of Marin, tomorrow noon, sponsored by the college's Viet Nam Project. Also at the "teach-in" will be two faculty members of San Francisco State College.

Mansfield Asks Calm On NATO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana has called for good sense in working out an agreement between the United States and France on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Mansfield says antagonism is not contained in French President Charles De Gaulle's letter demanding that NATO forces not under French control be removed from French soil within a year.

"Certainly, there is nothing in President Johnson's reply which suggests hostility to France in any way, shape or form," he added.

Mansfield suggested a meeting between Johnson and De Gaulle may be needed.

Lurid magazine articles and movies about man-eating clams are exciting enough. But the clam, which can weigh up to 500 pounds, is no man-eater. It leads a quiet life among the coral reefs of the Pacific, eating algae all day long.

They made precious little of their Bourbon, but what they made came up precious good. Rich and full. And so incredibly smooth that the Hill cousins were able to sell their whiskey for three times the going price.

Today, Hill & Hill is still made the same old way. As patiently as the Hill cousins meant it to be.

So be thankful you can get your Bourbon straight from the Hills of Kentucky.

Candidates' Nights Scheduled

Marin League of Women Voters will conduct two candidates' nights for those running for county office, in Novato on May 17 and at the Civic Center on May 25, both at 8 p.m.

Candidates for district attorney and coroner will speak at both sessions.

Candidates for the fifth district supervisor will speak at the May 17 meeting at the Novato Community House. Candidates for supervisor from the first district will speak at the May 25 meeting.

WHAT ROLE?

The candidates are Bruce Bales and A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr. for district attorney; William C. Bradley, Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, Gilbert F. Freitas and Richard Frederick Wood for coroner; John F. McInnis, Dr. William F. Upton and Melvin S. Warenback for first district supervisor, and William A. Gnoss and Lynes E. Downing for fifth district supervisor.

Among the questions to be asked candidates for coroner is: "Do you think the office of coroner should continue to be an elective one or should it be an appointive position?"

Candidates for district attorney will be asked: "What role can the district attorney's office play in reducing the crime rate in Marin County?"

WHAT POLICIES?

The questions to supervisorial candidates will include: "What long-range policies do you propose for guiding Marin County's future for its own development and also its development as part of the total Bay Area?

"What approach would you suggest for coordination of overlapping city, county and special district services? Is this a problem? Is it likely to become one?"

After answering specific questions prepared by the leagues, the candidates are slated to answer questions from the audience.

$1 Million Sniper Death Suit Filed

SANTA MARIA (AP) — The parents of a man slain by a teen-age sniper on U.S. 101 a year ago have filed a $1 million suit against the parents and estate of Michael A. Clark.

The suit, the second to arise from the April 25 shooting last year, was filed yesterday in Superior Court by Joseph and Dorothy Kocab, parents of Joel W. Kocab, 28, of West Los Angeles.

The younger Kocab was one of three fatally injured by bullets from Clark's rifle as he sniped at motorists on the highway 10 miles south of here.

Clark, 16, of Long Beach, fatally shot himself as police closed in.

An earlier suit, filed by the parents of another victim, William Reida, 43, of Norwalk, is still in litigation.

The third victim was Charles Hogan, 21, of San Luis Obispo.

Two Die In Auto Crash In Ride At High Speed

SANTA MONICA (AP)—A car traveling in excess of 90 miles per hour crossed a center divider and smashed into another vehicle, killing two persons and seriously injuring two others, police say.

Investigators said a car driven by Edward Armstrong, 28, of Los Angeles, smashed into a car operated by John B. Overholts, 43, of Pacific Palisades on Pacific Coast Highway yesterday.

Overholts and Doris Taylor, 28, of Los Angeles, were killed. Carol Cummings, 33, of Pacific Palisades, a passenger in Armstrong's vehicle, was seriously injured.

Armstrong, listed in serious condition at Los Angeles County General Hospital, was to be booked on manslaughter charges, officers said.

Charles Michals of Greenbrae, director of the Christopher for Governor campaign in Marin County, announced a no-host cocktail hour will start at 6:30 followed by dinner at 7:30.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is scheduled to introduce the former San Francisco mayor, who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor.

Michals said about 200 dinner reservations have been sold already.

BALES DINNER

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli will be one of the speakers at the $25-per-couple dinner Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Peacock Gap Country Club in honor of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales.

Campaign chairman Clifford S. Lund announced speakers will also include two former district attorneys, William O. Weissich and Roger P. Garety. San Francisco radio announcer Frank Dill will be master of ceremonies.

Burton Kirchner of the Bank of Marin is in charge of dinner reservations.

BRADEN FETE

Thomas W. Braden, who seeks the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, will be honored at a reception at the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron W. Leydecker Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Collins are co-hosts for the reception. Dr. Collins serves on the state Board of Education, of which Braden is president.

FOR WARENBACK

More area chairman have been named in the campaign to elect Melvin S. Warenback as county supervisor from the First District.

Richard Bettini and Carroll Walker, co-chairman for the Warenback campaign, announced these area chairmen: Ronald Shafer, for Santa Venetia; Ben Petrini, San Rafael Meadows; Remington Hodgson, Los Ranchitos, and Mrs. Fred Pill, Northbridge.

VIET NAM SHIFT

County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Congress from the First District, told members of the Women's League for Peace last night that he senses a "slight shift in administration policy" in regard to the Viet Namese war.

Storer, speaking in Ross, said he believed the Johnson administration would soon be willing to negotiate with the Viet Cong. He predicted this would be "a long step toward peace."

His remarks also touched on the need for better transportation facilities between Marin and San Francsico and the need to develop the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Equipment Taken At Coleman School

Edwin L. Codoni, principal of Coleman School, San Rafael, reported to police yesterday a television set, two typewriters and other equipment were stolen from the premises during the weekend.

Police said there was no sign of forced entry. The stolen property was valued at $585.

Two Marin Sailors Come Home On Leave

Two Marin County recruits to the Navy are home on leave until the end of the month when they will report for further training in their respective careers.

Eric J. Torney of 819 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, will train as surveyor at Davisville, R. I., and David C. Youens of 138 Stewart Drive, Tiburon, will report to the Naval Guided Missiles School at Virginia Beach, Va.

California had 95,000 farms in 1963, of which about 67 per cent were commercial.

FLAMING METEOR'S CONTRAIL

A meteor lit up the sky at dusk of the northeastern United States last night, leaving this contrail captured by an amteur photographer on Long Island. The fireball flashed from south to north and was 10,000 times brighter than the brightest star. It was seen from the Carolinas to Toronto and as far west as Ohio. Black halo in center of picture is water mark on negative.

Man Dies On Street Awaiting Ambulance

Michael A. McDonald, a stevedore living at the Bermuda Palms Motel, died today in the street outside 777 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

McDonald was conscious when found by San Rafael Police Officers John Riordan and Roy Conyers but died during the 20 minutes that elapsed between the officer's call for an ambulance at 7:50 a.m. and its arrival at 8:10 p.m.

Riordan said that there were minor bruises and some dried blood on McDonald's face, which might have been caused by a fall. There was no immediate evidence of foul play, he said.

McDonald was unable to explain what had happened to him before lapsing into unconsciousness, Riordan said.

When the United Ambulance reached the scene, attendants tried artificial respiration, but McDonald was dead on arrival at San Rafael General Hospital at 8:15 a.m.

Thomas Baker, ambulance operator, said part of the delay was due to changing shifts of drivers and attendants. "But we are responsible for only about six or eight minutes of the delay," Baker said.

San Rafael police said Riordan's call for an ambulance was received by the Communications Center at 7:50 a.m. and the center called United Ambulance Service on a direct line at 7:52 a.m.

An autopsy will be performed, and authorities are seeking relatives of McDonald, who was reported to have a brother in San Diego.

Children's Problems

Dr. Evelyn Callas, a pediatrician with the Permanente Medical Group in San Rafael, will discuss new findings and trends in medical research for children's problems at a joint meeting of the morning and afternoon groups of the San Anselmo Co-operative Nursery School at 8 p.m. May 4 at the College of Marin.

Tiburon Man Is Found Hanged

The body was found by his wife, Marianne Gray, at about 12:45 a.m.

Gray was the father of two young sons and a daughter.

Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley called it suicide and said Gray had been "despondent over employment problems." The body was taken to Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley for autopsy.

$500,000 Loss In Lumber Fire

EUREKA (AP) — A lumber mill fire in the tiny community of Honeydew about 50 miles south of Eureka caused an estimated $500,000 damage last night.

The blaze at the Owyhee Lumber Co. was under control by midnight, but by that time four buildings, milling equipment and 60,000 board feet of lumber were destroyed.

Firemen said the fire began early yesterday evening when sparks from a mill burner blew into an area where bark is peeled from rough lumber.

Merced means mercy. Capt. Gabriel Morago named the river "El Rio de Nuestra Senora de la Merced," the river of our Lady of Mercy (The Virgin Mary), because of the joy that he and members of his exploring party felt over its refreshing waters after trekking forty miles through a waterless country.

Corte Madera Pay Goes Up; Police Unhappy

Employees of the Town of Corte Madera, including the town manager, were granted $15,070 in salary and fringe benefit increases by the Town Council last night.

The council increased Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher's salary by $1,980 annually, from $12,576 to $14,556. This raise was not included in Usher's salary schedule proposal; it was suggested by the council.

Councilmen made no changes in Usher's proposed pay schedule for other town employees, which gives two-and-one-half per cent cost-of-living raises to 16 employees, five per cent raises to five and seven-and-one-half per cent raises to six employees.

In addition, the finance director, who has been on a $700 monthly salary, was moved onto the salary schedule at a range and step which will pay him $763 a month. An engineering aide was reclassified to senior engineering aide and moved to a range 15 per cent higher. His step, which determines his salary, will be set at budget time.

Sole opposition to the salary schedule came from police and firemen, who requested a seven-and-one-half per cent raise, instead of two-and-one-half per cent.

Police Officer Harvey Zion, representing public service employees, said all of Marin County lags behind the salaries paid police by other Bay Area cities. A seven-and-one-half per cent increase, he said, would give Corte Madera police the average of what is paid in those other cities and police would not object to two-and-one-half per cent raises in the future.

Usher argued that the two-and-one-half per cent raise "places Corte Madera on a par with the highest paid police force in the county, which is Mill Valley, and much higher than most."

Councilman Harold B. Wagstaff moved to give police and firemen a five per cent raise, but the motion failed for lack of a second. He voted against the overall salary schedule because of this.

In fringe pay, councilmen agreed to a two-and-one-half per cent raise to any policeman or fireman who completed a two-year college police or fire science course.

Councilman Holmes S. Norville voted against this, saying: "Going to school doesn't make a fellow any smarter or brighter."

The council voted to pay straight time in lieu of compensatory time off for holidays worked by police and fire personnel. It also increased the maximum allowable accumulation of sick leave from 60 to 90 working days, and agreed to allow vacations at any time during the year, rather than just between April and October.

Corte Madera Town Employees Assn. agreed with all these fringe benefit changes, but asked some of their own as well —town payment of dependent's insurance policies and three weeks vacation after five years instead of 10, with four weeks after 10 years. These were rejected.

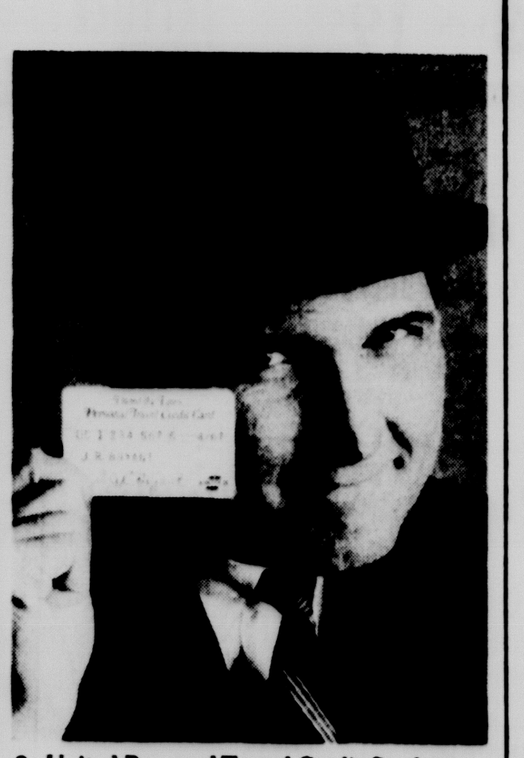
Discount is good even if you fly there alone and let the family join you later.



3. United Personal Travel Credit Card. Now you can charge your flight when you fly United. You can even charge the Excursion Fare and the Family Plan. Show any recognized credit card (department store, oil company, etc.), your driver's license, and fill out a simple form. Chances are, you will qualify for a card. Commission Sees New Novato Plan

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday held a two-hour public hearing on the Novato Area General Plan, but there was little public participation.

The time was spent mostly on reviewing differences between the county planning staff and the Novato Planning Commission and City Council, which has already held hearings on the plan.

The plan was prepared by the county planning staff under a joint agreement with the city.

Disagreement centered mainly on location and size of commercial areas proposed within the 62 square-mile planning area.

The plan recommends commercial use oriented to Highway 101 traffic, with some apartments at Rowland Boulevard and Redwood Boulevard and Highway 101. The city wants a community shopping center.

The same disagreeemnt exists on land on either side of South Novato Boulevard at Lamont Drive.

On both sides of Redwood Boulevard (now Highway 101, but to become a commercial street after highway realignment) the county recommends highway oriented use while the city wants community shopping.

The county recommends administrative-professional uses on the north side of West Novato Boulevard at Tamalpais Avenue, but the city wants community shopping and single-family homes.

The county recommends apartments between Alameda Del Prado and Highway 101 south of the Ignacio Interchange; the city wants a community shopping center.

The same argument exists on land southwest of San Marin Drive and Redwood Boulevard.

Novato Planning Director Robert Lagle presented the city's arguments. Rowland Darnell spoke for the county planning staff. The commission made no decision other than to agree to delete consideration of the alignment of Highway 37, since the State Division of Highways has not yet recommended a route.

Lagle said the city commission and council opposed a community shopping area at Bahia and Atherton avenues, east of the city, because the size did not seem appropriate and it might have "an adverse effect on stimulating growth downtown."

Lagle also said the council wanted two school sites in the San Marin area deleted because an "adult community" is proposed.

County planning commissioners seemed a little bemused by the plan for a community without children and wondered what guarantees will be used.

"How do you establish an adult community?" Commissioner William F. Upton asked.

"What they do about birth control, I do not know," Lagle said.

Mortuary Sues Over Gasoline Fire Troubles

Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael yesterday filed suit for $30,000 damages in Marin Superior Court in the Jan. 11 gasoline fire and explosion at the funeral home.

The suit charges John F. Cunba, distributor for Signal Oil Co., the company, and Denver Fox of Denver Petroleum Co. with negligence while pumping gasoline and other inflamable materials.

It alleges 30 days of operation were lost as a result of the explosion and fire, and asks for a yet-undetermined amount of money for that.

According to mortuary officials, an underground gasoline tank just behind the garage at the mortuary at 1011 E Street sprung a leak and filled with water. It was being pumped out by the contractor, Denver Fox of 1516 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, but some gasoline apparently remained in the tank, and fumes ignited, they said.

He said he is retiring in a month as president and chairman of the board of Bell and Howell.

Commission Reluctantly Approves Steep Lot Split Nobody Likes

Marin County planning commisisoners voted 4-1 yesterday to approve a lot divisions on School Road east of Novato that none of them liked.

One of the applicants, Alfred Hanken, said the planning staff had promised the lot split would be approved. This however, was before the lot split ordinance went into efefct and during the period when the planning staff ruled on applications.

Hanken was granted a division that created a steep lot with 70 foot frontage on the south side of School Road by the staff many months ago. It was impossible to build a driveway up to the house, which had to be built far back on the lot to allow room for leach lines.

"I'd like to know how the first lot was approved," Commission Chairman Margaret Azevedo said. No one had a ready explaination, except that the applicant said at the time it would be possible to build the drive up to the lot.

Yesterday's request was for the division of adjacent land into two 70-foot lots. Everyone agreed that the slope was over 25 per cent, and if the slope policy were applied, 90-foot lots would be required. But Planning Director Paul C. Zucker said that the slope policy is not written into the lot division ordinance. The commisison scheduled a discussion to correct this May 16.

Planning Commisisoner Eugene . Trombley voted against approval of the lot split. Commissioners William F. Upton and Claude Stoller were absent when the vote was taken.

Representatives of the Black Point Improvement Club, which wants one acre lots in the area, may appeal the ruling of the Board of Supervisors.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

1. Set hearing May 16 on a proposal to require underground utilities in planned community zones.
2. Adopted an amendment requiring undergrounding of utilities in clear zones for air fields.
3. Continued until next Monday consideration of amended plans for the Lucas Green commercial development at Lucas Valley Road and Highway 101.
4. Approved an addition of 8,360 square feet to the Frosty Acres frozen food warehouse on Hamilton Drive in Novato, on condition that a 50-fot easement now used for access and parking be acquired and a landscaping plan be filed.
5. Granted architectural supervision for lights on the sales lot of Mill Valley Volkswagen at 900 Redwood Highway in Alto. Neighbors earlier complained of glare and the commission ordered angle of the big lights changed.
6. Endorsed Assembly Bill 51 which would permit the State Department of Public Works to purchase land along highways for scenic purposes.
7. Learned from Zucker that he interviewed 34 potential candidates for vacant positions on the county planning staff while at a planners' convention in Philadelphia.
8. Learned from Zucker, in response to a query by Commissioner Hugh Dougherty, that the planning staff will include study of parking at bus stops in working with consultants on a rapid transit study for Marin County.
9. Adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

Governor Prods Budget Trimmers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Democratic Gov. Brown was ready today to consider Republican proposals to trim his budget, but he told the GOP to "hurry up . . . they are now about three months late."

At the same time he prodded the opposing party, the governor also voiced "serious doubts" about some of the $60.42 million in budget reductions recommended yesterday by the California Taxpayers Assn. And he flatly rejected their suggestion that tuition be charged at the state university and colleges.

As the 1966 session moved into the last week of its third month, Brown needled Republican assemblymen for not presenting detailed budget slashes earlier. The GOP minority has promised its item-by-item list of about $25 million in cuts by the end of this week.

His $4.62 billion spending program for the year starting July 1 is deadlocked in the lower house. Republicans, who must provide at least five votes to pass the budget, are withholding that support. They want the administration to slice the outlay, cut down a proposed bond issue and adopt their version of the new bookkeeping plan all sides agree will avert a tax boost this year.

Referring to the taxpayers group's economy plan, Brown said some of the cuts "are out of the question, but some deserve serious consideration."

The association, representing thousands of individuals and economy minded groups around the state, had said that a $200 yearly tuition charge at the University of California and state colleges could produce $40 million in additional revenue.

Brown replied that he, "and I think most Californians, believe our free tuition policy has helped to make our state the leader in the nation in higher education. I haven't seen any satisfactory proof to the contrary and, until I do, I'll continue to be for free tuition."

Clausen Seeks Flood Funds Restoration

WASHINGTON (AP) --Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, expressing dismay that the Warm Springs dam project was omitted from President Johnson's budget, says $2.7 million should be appropriated to the army engineers for start of construction.

The Crescent City Republican who is up for re-election told the House Public Works Appropriations subcommittee yesterday the dam on Dry Creek in Sonoma County was California's No. 1 priority flood control project.

Clausen was accompanied by Robert E. Rath, vice chairman of the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors and Gordon Miller, chief engineer of the county's flood control and water observation district.

Clausen said the dam planning was speeded up after the 1964 Christmas week flood and a second devastating flood last winter.

Governor To See Rusk About Russian Fishing

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown prepared today to meet with U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, or a close aide, to discuss possible moves if Russian trawlers fish off California's coastline in the near future.

Brown told a meeting yesterday of representatives of the legislature commercial fishing industry, sportsmen's groups and canning firms that he would attempt to see Rusk tomorrow while in Washington.

"We are concerned about this," Brown told the meeting, specifically called to see what role California should play in a situation basically involving federal intervention within the rules of international law.

Walter T. Shannon, state fish and game director, described how the Soviet fishing fleet first began operating in the Bering Sea near Alaska in 1959.

Eventually, said Shannon, the fleet moved southward, always staying beyond the three-mile offshore international boundary. In each instance, Shannon said, an exploratory ship first entered the area to test the fishing potential before the main fleet moved it.

In 1963, Shannon said, the Russians began their preliminary activity off Washington, Oregon and California.

In June 1964, two Soviet fishing vessels stripped a Scripps Institution of Oceanography instrument platform—moored 600 miles off Point Conception, Calif.—of records and instruments.

The main fishing fleet, he said, moved south off the Washington coast in 1965.

Brown Gets Lake Tahoe Sewage Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation to overhaul the Lake Tahoe area's sewage system and keep the scenic lake clean and beautiful is on Gov. Brown's desk today.

Referring to the two bills in which the Senate Monday unanimously concurred in Assembly amendments, Sen. Stephen P. Teale, D-West Point, sponsor of the measures, said: "I've been assured they'll be signed within 10 days."

One of the administration-backed bills will provide for a $1.8 million state loan to the South Tahoe Public Utility District to finance a sewage export system that will carry the treated effluent into Diamond Valley in Alpine County.

An additional $3.2 million in federal funds and local money will help finance the project, including expansion of the present sewage plant.

A second Teale bill applies to the Lake Tahoe Basin. It says that when any district within the basin completes an adequate sewage disposal-export facility—for example, connecting into the Diamond Valley system—then private homeowners and industry will have to hook up.

Otherwise, if cesspools or septic tanks continue to be used, it would create a public nuisance. Individuals and businesses would have 90 days to join the system before court action could be started.

Sit-In Teacher Gets Credential

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A state hearing officers ruled yesterday that Berkeley teacher should not be denied a state teaching credential simply because she participated in the 1964 Sproul Hall sit-in at the University of California.

The hearing officer, Harold First, upheld the claim of Mrs. Diana Kepner that she was exercising her constitutional right of freedom of assembly when she joined the sit-in.

Mrs. Kepner, who taught English and Latin at Garfield Junior High School in Berkeley for three years, was denied a renewal of her teaching credential by the state Credentials Commission.

Stinging Words In Close Lieutenant Governor Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rigorous three-cornered contest for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor continued today to rival any of the other primary election battles in closeness and stinging words.

The incumbent, Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson, is the main target of both the other competitors, Thomas M. Braden and Lloyd N. Hand. Anderson is speaking softly and in a generally non-controversial manner, seldom replying to his opponents' attacks.

Yesterday, Hand used President John F. Kennedy's assassination as an example of why he feels California can't afford to have Anderson as second-in-command.

Kennedy's death, Hand contended, showed how important it is to "make sure that your executive officer can handle the wheel as well as your skipper. The business of government is far too important to take a chance that its reins could be turned over to an indecisive man."

Yesterday, the Oceanside newspaper publisher and owner was accused by a union of "trying to deceive the voter. He is not a friend of the working man."

The charge came from Carl Mason, president of the San Diego Typographical Union, which has been trying to organize printers at Braden's paper, the Oceanside Blade Tribune.

Braden, the union and the National Labor Relations Board are enmeshed in a dispute over an unsuccessful union recognition attempt at the paper, and new organizing attempts.

"Braden tells his own employes that a union is not needed at the . . . Blade Tribune . . . and then joins picket lines when other employers do the same thing," Mason declared.

Braden replied that he has agreed to a new union election at his paper "so that the matter can be resolved and my long record of sympathy and friendship with labor's aims will not be clouded."

State Aid Set For Winter Flood Repair

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly has approved a bill authorizing state aid to repair public property damaged by last winter's floods in Northern California.

The bill was drafted by a Senate-Assembly conference committee. If the Senate approves the proposal, it will go to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for signature.

Novato Planners Deny Hospital

The Novato Planning Commission last night denied, by unanimous vote, a permit fr a 70-bed convalescent hospital and nursing home at 1931 Novato Boulevard, sought by Dr. Cecil H. Goggins.

The Novato Master Plan shows the proposed hospital site as an area with a maximum density of five dwelling units per acre. The planning staff noted the proposed building would take up 33 per cent of the long, narrow lot and most of its width. The staff had, however, recommended conditional approval.

The commission approved plans of Camillo Magnisi for an Italian Village Restaurant and Pizzeria on Highway 101 north of El Encanto apartments.

A request for changes sought by developer Harry H. Heifetz in the master plan for the Novato Auto Mart on 25 acres on Highway 101 north of Yukon Way, was denied by 3-to-3 tie vote. Voting "yes" were Commissioners John H. Mikos, John L. Castleman, and Wayne Hathaway; opposed were Patricia Beyer, Robert G. Johnson, and Ross Dugan Jr.

The Novato Planning Commission also:

1. Approved excavation on property of L. J. Dervin and J. J. Angeloni at the west end of Alice Street.

2. Postponed to June 27 consideration of rezoning 22.6 acres on the east side of South Novato Boulevard and both sides orf Rowland Boulevard from Agricultural - residential to commercial, Scottsdale Co. Submitted by petion.

3. Approved rezoning from single-family to multiple-family residential at 1110 Olive Avenue, property of Anibel P. and Velma R. Azevedo.

4. Approved the preliminary map of the Patterson subdivision on Oak Park Drive, near Orange Avenue.

Supervisors Argue Over Airport Fee

County supervisors William A. Gnoss and Ernest N. Kettenhofen today engaged in a sharp exchange over proposed improvement of the Marin County airport at Novato.

They had to be gaveled to silence by Board Chairman Byron W. Leydecker.

Under discussion was payment of $25,070 as "serverance damage" on about 20 acres that will remain in ownership of William Q. Wright Jr. and his family but be isolated on the east side of the new runway.

Kettenhofen said such a payment was "ridiculous" and the county would be better off buying the land outright and selling it later after the airport is built.

Asst. County Public Works Director Joseph Henderson said the county would provide a 40-foot road easement along the south end of the airport to reach the land.

"Why do we call it serverance when it's not?" Kettenhofen asked. He pointed out that the county, under a proposed agreement with the Wrights, would acquire 27.46 acres in fee at $2,500 an acre.

"Mr. Kettenhofen, you're just trying to throw in everything you can—" Gnoss began.

"I'm justs aying that it's improper to pay $25,000 for severance when it doesn't exist," Kettenhofen said, talking louder than Gnoss.

At this point the gavel fell.

Henderson told the board that all figures recommended in the purchase proposal were within the county's appraisals. However, he would not make the appraisals public, saying the figures had a direct bearing on negotiation still in progress for 30 acres from the Bodkin family to the north.

The county would pay a total $110,025 to the Wrights, including $68,650 for fee purchase of 27.46 acres, $6,280 for easement over 5.06 acres, and $25,070 for severance. The total also includes $10,000 to acquire reversionary rights on the existing runway and $25 for a working easement over adjoining land.

Designation For Bradley Called Illegal

One of four candidates for county coroner-public administrator in the June 7 primary today filed an affidavit charging another candidate with including illegal identification of himself on the ballot.

The affidavit, leveling the accusation at William C. Bradley, was filed with Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Superior Court by Richard Frederick Wood.

Wood challenged Bradley's ballot identification of "assistant county coroner-public administrator-public guardian" as illegal, claiming there is no such title.

He declared his investigation has revealed that at no time has Bradley been named either assistant public administrator nor assistant public guardian, and such ballot listing is a violation of the California Election Code which provides that "no candidate shall assume a designation which would mislead the voters."

Wood further cited the code that where an error or ommission is made on the ballot for names or descriptions of the candidates, the court shall require the county clerk to correct the error or show cause why it should not be corrected.

No immediate action was taken by Judge Haley pending a study of the affidavit.

San Rafael Hearings Called On Park Bonds

Two public hearings on San Rafael's role in the proposed $4.3 million county parks bond issue were set last night by the San Rafael Parks and Recreation commisison.

The first will be May 4 in city hall at 8 p.m.; the second, May 11 at Vallecito School at 8 p.m.

The bond issue will appear on the June 7 ballot. If passed it will allocate San Rafael $511,738 on a population basis.

Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota said the purpose of the hearings is two-fold. "We want to get the public's reaction on the bond issue itself, and on the projects suggested.

"We're open to any suggestions and comments from the citizens of San Rafael."

It will be known as Santa Margarita Valley Park.

The name was chosen from an original list of 300 suggested by students at Santa Margarita School, and the student who came up with the name will be honored at groundbreaking ceremonies Saturday.

Members of the commission and of the city council will dedicate the park at 11:30 a.m.

Purchased last year for $27,500, the site already has $20,000 allocated for first phase development. A further $20,000 will be requested in the next fiscal year to complete improvements, said Rodota.

It is to be a neighborhood park, eventually with a tennis court, picnic sites, play apparatus, and turf and asphalt areas for free play.

Commentator will be Mrs. Jeanette Tucker, sister of Oakland attorney Donald Warden, national chairman of the Afro-American Assn. Mrs. Tucker also designs the fashions that will be on display.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Charles Williams of 51 Knight Drive, San Rafael, or Mrs. John Arntz, 226 Deepstone Drive, Marinwood.

Ross Votes $300 Bonus For Teachers

A $300-a-year bonus for teachers holding a master's degree was voted last night by Ross School District trustees.

The board also raised the minimum teacher salaries in the district from $5,620 to $5,700 and the maximum from $10,599 to $10,800 for those with a bachelor's degree and $11,100 for a master's.

The salary range classifications were reduced from eight to five, and provide for reaching the top salary in 13 instead of 14 years service. The classifications are based on the number of semester units of independent study taken by a teacher beyond the requirements of the bachelor's degree.

The new salary schedule was adopted 4-to-0 by the board, with trustee Dr. Ira H. Degenhardt absent. The schedule was taken from the budget prepared by Supt. William W. Monahan.

Tiburon Council Procedure Altered For Action Speed

The Tiburon City Council, sparked by its three newly elected members, last night adopted unanimously a series of procedural changes aimed at speeding up its actions.

Councilman Thomas E. Drohan, William R. Bremer and Branwell D. Fanning, elected April 11, proposed most of the changes. The two holdover members, Mayor John S. Hoffmire Jr. and Gordon W. Strawbridge, got into the spirit of the thing and added a few of their own.

The council authorized City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose to establish three permanent, two-member council committees on planning, public services, and budget and finance—to screen agenda items.

It gave more responsibility to the planning commission by voting to curtail council review of matters previously threshed out by the commission.

It also agreed to meet with Planning Commission Chairman Stephen H. Nash in a closed meeting May 5 to select appointees for the commission to bring it up to its authorized seven members. It now has four. It would also discuss with Nash establishing two commission committees of the board of adjustment and a design and review board (this, presumably, not at a closed meeting as that would have no color of legality).

It agreed to accept majority votes of the Citizens Advisory Council as council policy, have the city staff review the powers of the dormant parks and recreation commission, and to review a preliminary budget by the end of May.

It would also look into the formation of citizen committees to investigate annexation and preserve an open waterfront.

The Tiburon City Council also:

1. Approved a health program for city employees in conjuction with the city of Belvedere that would cost Tiburon $720 a year.

2. Introduced the uniform traffic ordinance of the League of California Cities. Vote on enactment will be May 9.

3. Directed Rose and city engineer to report within two weeks on solution to flooding on Tiburon Boulevard in front of the fire house. A delegation from the Tiburon Fire District Board appeared to ask what the city had done.

4. Agreed to permit developer Fred G. Zelinsky to pay $11,516 in lieu of installing a drainage system in front of the Safeway Store on Tiburon Boulevard, which he had earlier agreed to do.

5. Proclaimed May "Senior Citizen Month" and directed City Manager Rose to screen likely candidates for a "Senior Citizen of the Year."

CLOSED MONDAYS

Sometimes people forget it's a station wagon.

Two truck-like doors in its side leave a gaping 4' by 4' hole.

Also, its roof is quite a bit higher than the average wagon roof.

And 2 of the VW's 3 bench seats come out completely.

On top of all that, there's a sliding sunroof. (Even if something is too big to fit in, it can stick out.)

That's why, when you've just bought a rolltop desk, or a piano, or a hutch, you might forget it's a station wagon. We don't mind.

Mental Health Volunteers Needed—A Valuable Role

Mental health is a field in which the layman who has a genuine interest in the comfort and well being of fellow human beings can play an important role.

The urgent and emergency cases are of course handled at the outset in professional institutions under medical supervision. However, during the long process of recuperation and rehabilitation, there are a variety of services which the laymen can perform to supplement the clinical treatment provided by the medical experts.

The Marin Assn. for Mental Health, with headquarters at 1005 A Street in San Rafael, gives specific examples of how the laymen volunteers, giving a few hours of their time on a regular basis, can bring hope, encouragement and recovery to individuals who are temporarily distressed because of circumstances beyond their control.

State hospitals are overcrowded and understaffed. To help ease the overcrowding, Community Mental Health Services provide facilities for local treatment in at least 37 communities in the state. Marin is one of those communities. The Marin facility, at 610 D Street, offers in the main, outpatient services, pre-petition screening, urgency and emergency services.

This concept of providing facilities near the patient's home is one of the most significant changes in the treatment of the mentally ill. It offers a way of giving treatment with the least disruption of the patient's life; he remains at home and usually can continue on his job.

But beyond these professional services, the patient must rely on his own resources or the help of families, friends and neighbors to work toward complete recovery.

Here is where the volunteers come in. No special training or skills are needed. A warm and friendly disposition, a genuine concern about fellow human beings, and a willingness to give a few hours on a regular basis are the essential elements.

The Marin Assn. for Mental Health, through executive director Mrs. Sutton Christian, cites an example:

Gladys, a 57-year-old Marin resident, had been home only a short time from Napa State Hospital after a year and a half of treatment for severe depression. She was on her way to recovery, when her husband suddenly died of a heart attack.

Somehow, she managed to stand up during the funeral and the winding up of her husband's estate. She held up for about five weeks. Then loneliness overcame her. There was no one to confide in, no one to provide companionship, nobody who cared.

She succumbed to fear, frustration and intolerable loneliness. She was sent back to Napa State Hospital.

Yet, if Gladys had an interested friend or a volunteer, whom she could see daily, who could offer her transportation to the various agencies she needed to visit, and could provide her with the feeling that someone cared, she might easily have remained out of the hospital and lived normally.

Gladys could have been you, your wife, a neighbor or a friend. There is scarcely a soul among us who can say with complete assurance that he is able to stand completely alone in the face of tragedies that can strike any one of us. It is during these times of stress that a kind word, a helping hand, or the mere knowledge that another human being shares the tragedy with you can pull you through.

The efficient and professional treatment at institutions provides the initial aid to the distressed. But where the rather impersonal help of the professional must necessarily leave off, the warm and personal attention of a friend, neighbor or volunteer can carry on.

The Marin Assn. for Mental Health, through its volunteer program, is playing a valuable role in the rehabilitation of the distressed. We urge men and women, who have the time and the inclination, to help in that humanitarian task.

'Sensationalism' Deplorable

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: Letter to Editor April 13, "Law Officers Run Risks."

The exasperation your reporters create, by their unfair style of reporting — in the popular "sensationalism of the month" in favor of the misfits becomes deplorable.

The accomplishment of the writer, Hal C. Spohn, to point out your shortcomings, without losing his temper and venting his exasperation as it affects so many of us is commendable.

The conduct of our supervisors, sheriff and district attorney adopt the pattern set by the paper.

We look for your review of policy, as a hope to instill courage in our weak politicians, who then can serve the people and their precious jobs too.

Hospital Financial Operation Questioned

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On April 14, I was invited by Kitty Oppenheimer to appear, with three other persons, on KTIM for a panel discussion of the need for a co-ordinator for Marin General Hospital.

When the invitation was offered me I was under the impression that the opinions of the panel would be equally divided. However it was not, but, I do not blame anyone for this as I was prepared to express my own opinions.

During the discussion it was brought to the fore-front that $25,000 had been set aside by the board for the purpose of searching for a person who would qualify for the position of a co-ordinator.

The thought occurs to me how much more moneys have been set aside for purposes unknown to the public? It has always been my understanding that this Hospital is a district hospital and therefor is able to ask for a tax rate when in need of funds.

This establishment of a fund for creation of a new position should not effect the patients rate, which is rather high at present, but should be collected only after facts have been established of the need of moneys.

How many more of these brain-children has the board which may need some more money?

Closed Meeting Is Justified

Editor, Independent-Journal:

An I-J headline of April 19 reads, "Closed Meeting Brings Challenge." A follow-up story of April 20 is headed "Board Faces Probe of Meeting." All of this patently derogatory publicity has had its genesis in the unfounded allegations of malcontents who are dedicated to harassment by innuendo.

The first story (April 19) cites several sections of the California Government Code. The sections in toto are popularly known by its title the "Brown Act."

. . . Under Govt. C.Sec.54957, there is contained language which states "NOTHING in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any board, commission . . . from holding executive sessions to consider (a) matters affecting national security, or (b) the appointment, employment or dismissal of an officer or employee, or to hear complaints, etc. . . .

Now, the foregoing compared to the usual double talk and ambiguity as prepared by our esteemed legislators, is relatively clear. . . .

But alas. . . . Mr. Bales, a district attorney upon whose doorstep or perhaps welcome mat these allegations of misfeasance (or it is malfeasance) come to rest, must assign an investigator. I say why must the taxpayers be put to this expense when, I'm sure, there is contained in the law library of the district attorney a set of Deering's Code, and all that would have to be done would be to turn to page 759 of the Government Code, and this baffling whodunit would be solved. . . .

Because thus far the Mill Valley School Board is free from book banners, treatise twisters, tomesmiths and paragraph paranoics, they are constantly subjected to the Chinese torture of 10,000 cuts by typewriter wielded by the publishers of a local newsette. And against this they cannot retaliate. The group publishing the periodic diatribe, with great magnanmiity, solicit members and subscriptions by offering as an incentive to join, this reward, "Remember, if you wish to join our group, our membership list is maintained in secrecy."

Our Foreign Policy Seems Soft-Headed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I find it impossible to understand our foreign policy.

Britain has imposed economic sanctions on Rhodesia, in order to coerce that country into changing its domestic policy. This is an issue or quarrel within the British Commonwealth, but we nevertheless make common cause with the British by joining in the embargo against Rhodesia.

At the same time, we are at war with North Viet Nam, and Britain offically supports our position, and Australia, a member of the Commonwealth, has joined as a fighting ally.

All the while Britain is shipping large quantities of supplies to North Viet Nam. Evidently the right hand does not know what the left hand is doing.

I regard our country as the Don Quixote among the nations of the world — generous and idealistic, but soft in the head.

Why Does Room Cost So Much?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

County Administrator Alan Bruce has just arranged a two-year lease of a 1,200-square-foot portable classroom, at $8,000, to use as a temporary recreation hall in Marin City.

Comparable portable classrooms from another firm were leased by the Mill Valley School District at about $3,200 for two years.

Why the difference? I'm wondering if Mr. Bruce put this contract out for competitive bids.

It is easy to see why county taxes are due to jump 20 per cent next year.

Taxes Will Act Like Umbrella Or Club For Johnson This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — This year taxes are going to hang over President Johnson like an umbrella or a club.

Taxes may go up.

If they don't, then in the congressional elections Johnson can say, "We got along without them." If they do, Republicans will blame them on him.

WHEN CONGRESS cut taxes in 1964 and 1965, that was supposed to settle things for quite a while. But the costs of the Vietnamese war came along.

Then living costs began inching up.

In February they went up one-half of 1 per cent. Last week came the news that in March they had bumped their way up a bit again, this time four-tenths of 1 per cent.

This was just a modest increase compared with February. But it was still a continued rise. And it was in March that Johnson indicated he might have to ask Congress to boost taxes as an anti-inflation move if living costs kept going up.

AS A POLITICIAN he knew this was sheer poison. But as a politician he knew this had an antidote.

If, after fussing about the possibility of a tax increase, there was no great increase in living costs and therefore no tax increase, he could claim credit for a great achievement by his Democratic administration.

Meanwhile, he worked at it, pressuring labor to keep down its wage demands and business to keep down prices and new construction.

HE SAID AT the time about new taxes: "We don't want to act prematurely. We don't want to put the brakes on too fast."

This was a great big nudge to practically everybody about throwing money around. In case they didn't feel his elbow, he tried a few more pokes.

He said most of his advisers were talking of three alternatives: Government controls, a federal spending cut of $5 billion to $10-billion or a tax increase of roughly $5 billion. This really took in everybody.

BUT HE SAID no one likes controls. And he said he does not believe federal spending can be cut very much without hurting "necessary or popular programs that Congress would go along with."

Then some Republicans were heard.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, said "I'm certainly not going to support any tax increase as long as the administration continues to press for expenditures that can be deferred." He called some of those expenditures "boon-doggles," such as funds for a new teacher corps and rent subsidy programs.

AND SENATE Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said the President was in for a tug-of-war with Republicans and conservative Democrats who will fight to cut spending rather than increase taxes.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

McNamara Retaliates To De Gaulle Demand

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

The imperious, ultra-nationalist Frenchman is demanding the U.S. withdraw its troops, bases and depots from his country. In inner White House councils McNamara is advocating that U.S. forces and military facilities in Europe be slashed by more than 50 per cent.

While a decision on McNamara's far-reaching plan is not likely in the near future, at the same time a good start has been made on it.

THIS IS the officially announced intention to withdraw 15,000 specialitsts and technicians from the five U.S. divisions in Europe to meet urgent needs in Viet Nam in the next several months. This number of troops is approximately equivalent to one division.

And that isn't all.

Also definitely contemplated is a similar "cannibalization" of these divisions in the late fall. In effect, that will mean cutting down their effective combat strength by two divisions.

On paper the U.S. will still have five divisions in the NATO command. Actually, their fighting strength will amount to less than half that, as the trained personnel is being drained from all of them. All five divisions are losing experienced officers, non-coms and units.

PRESUMABLY, the divisions' ranks will be replenished. But it will take many months to bring the replacements up to combat efefctiveness.

And that isn't the only problem. It's a very moot question whether these many thousands of replacements will be forthcoming. They won't be under McNamara's backstage plan to reduce U.S. military strength in Europe by more than one-half.

The military leaders stress it would have "devastating impact" on the NATO alliance; that it could well mean the beginning of the end of a united defense against Soviet aggression.

In reply, McNamara contends that De Gaulle's withdrawal of French forces from NATO and "eviction" of U.S. troops and installations makes it imperative to face up to new factors and conditions. Also that reconstituting the huge logistic systems NATO has in France will cost billions.

AS AN ILLUSTRATION, he cites the NATO oil pipeline that extends from St. Nazaire, on the southern coast of Brittany, across France to West Germany. To replace it, as would be necessary to supply five full divisions and numerous other U.S. units in NATO, would cost upwards of $300 million.

For these reasons, he favors the following:

1. Main NATO headquarters be moved to London. The Central NATO Group Military Headquarters now at Fontainebleau be shifted to Luxembourg.

2. More than half of the 186 depots, airfields, communications facilities and other U.S. installations in France be eliminated completely. The remainder be transferred to Belgium, the Netherlands and Italy, if the latter will agree to take some.

3. This drastic curtailment will obviate the necessity of replenishing the large quantities of munitions, weapons and other supplies the U.S. has "borrowed" from its NATO forces in the past six months to meet combat needs in Viet Nam. McNamara is stressing this alone would save hundreds of millions of dollars.

4. Removing to the U.S. tactical nuclear weapons now stockpiled in Europe. Already more than 20 per cent of these arms have been withdrawn from U.S. forces and stored in rear depots — only one in France.

5. Cutting U.S. forces in NATO to two divisions maintained at full strength and top fighting efficiency. . . .

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Unruh Takes Gov. Brown Apart For Space Age Problem Study

By HENRY C. MACARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Criticism of the methods of approach Governor Brown is taking to solve some of California's problems through studies involving space age equipment was voiced in New York recently by Jesse M. Unruh, speaker of the assembly, D-Los Angeles.

Unruh spoke at the National Industrial Conference board of public affairs group. The studies in California sponsored by the governor involved transportation, crime, waste and handling of information. The theory of the governor is that if aerospace concerns can find the path to the moon, they should be able to work out ways and means of solving some of the more earthly problems.

The studies so far have cost the state $400,000. Regarding them, Unruh said:

"CERTAINLY THE field of information, transportation, crime and waste offers a rich supply of problems. It would be well for any enlightened society to dedicate a major portion of its resources to the understanding of any one of these clusters of problems.

"It is also true that a greater use of scientific methods of analyzing the technical aspect of public problems and the systematic vormulation of alternative options for their treatment are long over-due.

"The celebrated 'space contracts' represent a potentially valuable idea, soured by a basic misunderstanding of what science is about and by a profound mistake concerning its application to government.

"We know a significant amount now about each of these subjects, and a great many more in our environment, but we have not yet developed or reached the consensus it takes to implement the appropriate social and political settlement.

"THE SECOND criticism I would make of the contracts is the underlying assumption that the state can buy $100,000 worth of science, but also that an aerospace firm is precisely the place to buy it.

"The planning departments of Security First National Bank, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, or Pacific Telephone company, to name three California enterprises, employ greater numbers of scientifically trained personnel whose fields of work are far more relevant to problems of state government than anything which can be found in aerospace.

"NO ONE reasonably could be expected to buy the plans for a unified system of transportation for California with $100.00. What we got was a set of futuristic drawings of passenger trains and a paid proposal representing the outline of a study of transportation.

"Finally, this is the wrong way to go about it, because the answer, even if there were one, is not all you need. You need, as a minimum, to build into the processes of state government a trained cadre of on-going personnel equipped to make use of the discoveries, if and, and to train others."

Novato Cleanup Week Hits Snag: Who's To Pick Up The Refuse?

Government and civic groups will team up in May to try to clean up Novato.

But already, the drive has been dealt a blow. The Novato Disposal Service, which last year made free pick-ups in front of homes where spring cleaning was being done, has reluctantly turned down a request to do the same job this year.

THE COMPANY claimed it was short of men to put in an extra day, at the firm's expense, on three Sundays in a row in May.

The Novato Fire District, now in the midst of a campaign to have homes cleared of junk, at least combustible junk, was especially interested in the refuse pick-up. "Clean homes seldom burn," is the slogan the district's fire prevention bureau has been using this spring.

The rest of the drive will be aimed at civic groups, mainly.

"Last year, the emphasis was mainly with governmental workers," said Edward W. Adams, Novato's park and recreation director and the man in charge of the three-week program. "But this year the main emphasis will be on community groups. We want to get the community much more involved."

The city, county and the State Division of Highways, along with the North Marin County Water District, Novato Sanitary District, fire district and Marin Mosquito Abatement District, will supply men and equipment.

THESE MEN will be concerned mainly with cleaning up public rights of way, including weed abatement. The fire district will also emphasize weed clearing on private land, adding in a special flyer that grass fires can easily spread faster than a child can run, especially up hill.

The city will also hire 16 high shcool students for three weekends to help clear litter from major streets.

Adams said the Novato Chamber of Commerce has been given the job of organizing about 35 civic groups, such as improvement clubs, fraternal organizations and parent-teacher associations. Each will choose a project, cleaning up a school's grounds, for instance, and members will spend a weekend at it.

THE CHAMBER will also encourage individual homeowners and businesses to spruce up their own buildings. Hardware stores have been asked to hold special sales on paint and building and garden supplies as a special incentive. The chamber is also holding a slogan contest.

Hamilton Air Force base will concentrate efforts on Rafael Village.

The campaign will last three weeks, but the date for the start has yet to be set. There will be an emphasis on a different section of the city each week.

LAST YEAR, with the special refuse pick-up, homeowners could leave anything, from old magazines to old sofas out of their garages for the collection at the curb. The disposal firm's officials said that the compressor trucks used for the pick-ups are too dangerous for high school students, to be hired by the city, to use.

MORRIE RYSKIND

Loss Of Their Marbles Blamed For Supreme Court's Decisions

"Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad," is a warning that comes from the ancients. And I reluctantly conclude that some of the Warren Court members, in spite of a few notable dissents, have lost their marbles.

Partly, I am influenced by having just finished Lyman A. Garber's "Of Men, and Not of Law," (Devin-Adair: $3.95) which details, in layman's language, some of the weirdo decisions the boys have arrived at.

In 1831, Stephen Girard, a Philadelphian, died, leaving his fortune to found a school for poor, white orphan boys. In 1957, the Court ruled he had been discriminatory and that the school must be open to all.

TRY THAT ONE on for size. Supose Girard, looking into the future, had left his money for poor, orphaned Negro lads? Would the Court have repudiated his will as discriminatory? Any bets?

The Mallory Case of Washington, D.C., is another lulu. Mallory was arrested for rape and convicted, and the conviction upheld by the District Court of Appeals. But seven-and-one-half hours had elapsed between questioning and the time of his confession and arraignment. On that time basis alone, the Supreme Court freed him, though never at any point did Mallory's attorneys contend he was innocent or that duress had been used to get the confession.

Ironically, Mallory, after release, went to Philadelphia and broke into a house to commit the same crime. This time he forgot to hold out for the requisite seven-and-one-half hours and is now languishing in a Pennsylvania prison.

THERE ARE MANY other instances in the book. But my paper brings me the Court's latest 5 to 4 decision, upholding an Arizona school teacher's refusal to sign a state loyalty oath which would subject to prosecution for perjury any one who signed and remained or became a Communist Party member. I realize it's a great victory — but for whom?

And here's how Congressman Richard L. Roudebush of Indiana sums up another situation which can be laid to the Court's insatiable craving — noted by Frankfurter in his later years — to rule on everything: "Loathsome persons reciting filthy poetry are permitted on college campuses with immunity. Yet the childhood prayer, 'God is great, God is good, And we thank Him for our food,' is forbidden to grade-schoolers."

Carried to its logical conclusion, the Court's ban would do away with Thanksgiving observances at the school — and even with the famous day itself. Oh, well, I'll miss the turkey and cranberry sauce, but LBJ has asked us all to pull in our belts.

DURING THE Middle Ages, the obvious forerunners of the court took up similar matters, such as deciding on whether 14 angels could sit on the point of a needle at the same time. I forget just how it came out, but I am certain the Lord abided by the result.

With no disresepect, however, I suggest it is high time for that decision to be reviewed, and that the Warren Court take a new look at it. Such obviously crowded ghetto conditions should not be tolerated, for surely even the lowliest angel is entitled to have his own needle to sit on.

What Heaven undoubtedly needs is some urban renewal, and I think the Great Society might well offer to pay half the costs. Another couple of billions for foreign aid wouldn't hurt us, and we could make it clear that the Heavenly host would not have to give up its policy of non-alignment in accepting our help.

NOW I'M ALL for separation of church and state, but I'm blanked if I can see that a nondenominational childhood prayer — especially one that any youngster is free to abstain from — violates anybody's rights or subverts the Constitution.

But, say the devout atheists, a child that does not participate feels "different" and suffers traumatic injuries. To which any judge with even a modicum of common sense might well have replied, "Enough, Buster! Go peddle your papers elsewhere."

But not this collection of ritualistic liberals, who swallow camels without blinking but strain at gnats.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Gives Warning About U.N.

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am quite alarmed at the number of people here in Marin county that are actively supporting the United Nations and this includes several of our elected county officials. For those who don't know, the United Nations was brought into being by Communists including a few in high places in our own government.

The under-secretary for political and security council affairs is, and always has been a communist. The man holding this office is in charge of all peace keeping forces around the world and was in direct control of our forces during the Korean war. No wonder we were not allowed to win this war! And will Viet Nam be just another rubber stamp of the Korean war? According to a former communist, Joseph Z. Kornfeder, and as reported in Ed Griffin's book, "The Fearful Master," ". . . the United Nations is the sole survivor of the greatest folly of all time; namely, the illigitimate marriage between the New Deal and communism. It's internal set-up, Communist designed, is a pattern for sociological conquest; a pattern aimed to serve the purpose of Communist penetration of the West."

For those who are tired of seeing their tax dollars being spent on this monster in our midst please write to your congressman asking him to suport House bill H. R. 164 which provides for the United States withdrawal from the United Nations. Don't wait for George to do it; because concerned Americans need your support now.

Strong Tax Group Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In re: The so-called "Super Agency" proposed by County Administrator Allan Bruce:

Historically, each reorganization which has been proposed and accomplished in Marin County was proclaimed and intended to produce more efficiency at lower costs to the taxpayers. However, perusal of county budgets and personnel records will show that higher costs of operation and increased supporting personnel have resulted. County budgets have not been the only ones to increase in this fashion; school districts have also been suckered by such proposals.

A review of files of the I-J, minutes of County Board of Supervisors meetings and other public records concerning the establishment and operation of the office of county administrator and that of the data processing bureau will show these as two glaring examples of such economic folly, as well as the Civic Center which was built to house all county government and from which already one major county office has moved to rented facilities elsewhere, another had to be set up in a totally unrelated office at a borrowed desk and this latest is proposed to occupy at least temporarily part of another unrelated office. We can presume that there will be more bond elections to finance construction to house all these in the not too distant future — probably as soon as it is thought that we have forgotten or recovered from the June bond election for county parks.

What Marin County needs is a strong and active taxpayers' association, affiliated with other such groups in California, and an over-all study of county government by a firm of efficiency experts familiar with removing the financial lard from business and industry. The goose which has been laying golden eggs in Marin is now a naked jaybird who can no longer afford a nest, let alone the taxes being levied upon it.

Teacher From Marin Plans Russian Journey

By BOB FOSTER
Redwood High School

PATRICIA PENDERGAST
Plans Russian summer

Caviar and borsch will be part of the diet of Patricia Pendergast, Redwood High School history teacher, during her travels this summer.

She plans to journey behind the Iron Curtain for a six-week tour of Russia, then make a trip through Ireland.

Immediately after school is dismissed in June, Miss Pendergast will fly to England where she will board a Soviet liner, Alexander Pushkin. The ship will sail through the North Sea, stopping at Stockholm, Copenhagen, and Helsinki, and will reach Leningrad on the fifth day.

From Leningrad, Miss Pendergast will journey to Moscow, where she will join a group of English-speaking tourists. "It is a rather puzzling affair," Miss Pendergast reported, "The Russian government gives no indication as to the composition of the group, all I know is that they will all speak English."

A guide from Intourist, the official Russian government department, will escort the group on a four-week tour of the Soviet Union, including Kiev, Soci, and other historical and manufacturing areas. "This will probably include many of their new factories and condominiums," Miss Pendergast said.

Although she speaks no Russian, Miss Pendergast is not concerned as "a lot of Russians speak English, so that won't be a problem, and the guide, of course, speaks English."

"Since the freshmen world history classes at Redwood have a unit on the USSR I hope to augment the curriculum by my trip. I plan to take many pictures and slides to help accomplish this," she reported.

After her excursion through Russia, Miss Pendergast will fly to Dublin, then tour Ireland with her brother and his family.

Traveling abroad is not new to this teacher. She has journeyed to South America under a Fulbright scholarship and has studied in Mexico on two occasions.

Novato Council To Hear Park Bond Plans Report

The Novato City Council tonight will hear a report from the parks and recreation commission on possible park sites in Novato that could be developed if the June 7 county parks bond issue passes.

The council meets at 8 p. m. at the Novato Community House.

The council will hold public hearings on two appeals from planning commission rulings. Claude Johnson is appealing turndown of a duplex behind a house at 1128 Third Street, and James R. Coleman is appealing denial of rezoning from residential-agricultural to commercial at the southeast corner of Wilson Avenue and Novato Boulevard.

The council will see final maps of Stanford Oaks subdivision on Center Road between Tamalpais and McClay Street, and of the medical portion of the shopping center under construction on Novato Boulevard.

Airman Gets Leave

Airman James W. Hotelling of 2171 Novato Boulevard, Novato, is home on leave after completing training at Navy Aviation Machinists Mate School at Memphis, Tenn. He will undergo further technical training at Moffett Field before assignment to Hawaii.

Depicting a scene in a typical casino in which players often pass quickly from rags to riches—or vice versa—are several committee members. Mrs. Rodman Starke plays the piano on which Mrs. Stephen Heefner is sitting, while Mrs. Norman Wohlschlaeger deals and Mrs. William H. Spencer tries her luck. A Social Occasion, Benefit Gathering At Branson School

By MOLLY MARIN

Some 200 guests were on hand for the luncheon which preceded the silent auction at the Katharine Branson School in Ross today. Mrs. Roger Hooper, president of the parents' association, which sponsored the event with the alumnae association, shared a table with Mrs. Ivan Cousins, newly elected president of the parents' association.

Mrs. Charles Howard Allen honored her twin sister, Mrs. Ned Griffith, at lunch, as Esther and Ned are celebrating their silver wedding anniversary today.

Co-hosting a table were Mrs. Olaf Holter and Mrs. Granger Hill. Lillian Holter and her daughter, Sarah, and Virginia Hill and her daughter, Nancy, have just returned from an Eastern trip. They flew to Washington, D.C., visited at Williamsburg, and flew to New York. The Hills continued to Chicago, where they visited Nancy's older sister, Mimi, a student at Northwestern University. Lillian Holter and Sarah visited friends in Greenwich, Conn., and New York, before Sarah flew home. Lillian spent the weekend with former Marinites, Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Bossange, in Dallas, before returning to Marin.

ALSO ENTERTAINING at the lunch today were Mrs. George Rugg and Mrs. Douglas Craig, and Mrs. Fred Woodhull and Mrs. Irving Ritter, Mrs. Richard Allen and Mrs. Roy Roche, and Mrs. Earle McBain and Mrs. Maurice Salomon. Arranging a table for the lunch were Mmes. Clinton Jones, Robert Danielson and John Manwaring. Dr. and Mrs. Manwaring recently returned from spending several weeks in Europe.

Mrs. Stanleigh Arnold, auction chairman, arranged a table at which she introduced Mrs. John Hunter, recently moved to Marin, to a group of friends. The Hunters and their children, Mara, John and Shawna, have come from Los Angeles to Kent Woodlands. Also seated at Mrs. Arnold's table was Mrs. G. E. B. EARLY MARRIAGE TRENDS

Teen Mother Faces Sudden Responsibility, Loneliness

One of a series on the teen-age marriage and divorce symposium held by the Continuing Education in Medicine and Health Sciences, University of California Medical Center

By BARBARA HOSMER

Inexperience with responsibility, lack of help from the older generation, and loneliness are common problems for the teen-age mother faced with the reality of child-rearing, says Dr. Leontine R. Young, speaking on problems of young motherhood in America

More babies will be born this year to 19-year-old mothers than any other age group, but we didn't teach young people how to be parents. These teen-age mothers up to this point have had little or no experience in making decisions and taking the increasing responsibility for their consequences. They face a weight of responsibility for which many are ill-prepared, states Dr. Young, who is executive director of the Child Service Assn. of Newark, N.J.

"As children decisions were made for them and as adolescents freedom has not always been accompanied by a sense of responsibility." While this varies with the person, the predominant trend has been to keep youth confined to the status of childhood through the teens, unprepared to learn the responsibilities of parenthood, she said.

Dr. Young pointed out that the teen who becomes a mother, married or unmarried, is not usually the one who is most sensitive to demands of long range responsibility such as child rearing brings, not ready to focus upon the child's needs rather than her own.

The reality of a demanding infant is a long way from the radiant pictures of smiling young women she sees on the television commercials, ideal symbol of American youth, she said.

"THOSE PICTURES SHOW small connection with climbing out of a warm bed in the middle of the night to care for a screaming bit of humanity staying home night after night while other girls go to the parties, or with the daily routine of changing diapers."

And to the teen mother, meeting the incessant needs of an infant can seem a prison from which she can't escape until the years have robbed her of her youth, creating a resentment, which makes her feel she is a failure as a mother, as well.

This situation results in the 18-year-old mothers who suddenly walk out and leave their crying babies alone because they "can't stand it a minute longer" and go to the movies, because they're "entitled to a little fun," Dr. Young remarked.

One such girl's mother criticized her sharply, saying the situation had changed with the birth of a baby, and she was no longer a free agent.

"The situation had changed but the girl had not, at least not enough . . ." Responsibility became a realty with remarkably little romanticism attached she said.

She pointed out that this disillusionment adds strain at a time when the girl is already struggling with the problems of marital adjustment and new patterns of life with a husband.

"To the young mother it appears that the father has all the luck . . . can get out of the house every day, meet people . . . come home and play with the baby for an hour, but has none of the drudgery and confinement. To the father it seems just the opposite. Neither may recognize that both viewpoints are erroneous with large elements of fantasy in each," she said. The result is resentment. It is easier to blame each other than to face the reality of premature parenthood, Dr. Young commented.

She said that the rising curve of child neglect is related to this situation, although, of course not every young mother neglects her child, but that the emotional needs which pushed an immature girl into this circumstance also argue against her resolving it on a mature level.

It would be better for such a teen mother to have the aid and support of her own mother or even mother-in-law, whose maturity and experience can help, she said.

"You often hear a woman say of her daughter's marriage and child rearing, 'I just stay out of it—I'm not the interfering kind. Let them work it out themselves,' which is unique to our kind of society," Dr. Young stated. It tends to leave the young mother most in need of help with the least likelihood of receiving it from her own relatives. When she does have the emotional and practical support of her own mother, there is far more hope for all involved, she said.

THIS POINTS UP a major problem for young mothers—loneliness, Dr. Young stated. No past society has ever expected the young mother to deal successfully with new life demands without the instruction of those with experience, but in our society the young family is left to find its own salvation in the most confusing, difficult and complex environment ever known, she said.

She suggested that perhaps adults — parents, in-laws and grandparents may be shirking their own responsibility in washing their hands of the younger generation:

"We are moving so fast—they are faced with new and frightening demands for which they in turn have not been prepared or given time to grow up to and understand."

She also said that there is increasing indifference and refusal to take responsibility among the unmarried mothers of every economic level. In a group of 750 unmarried mothers who were predominately white and middle class, the most common attitude was one of indifference. They seem to feel that coming to a social agency was all they had to do—after that the responsibility was the agency's, Dr. Young said, who remarked that they were more used to turning to community organizations than to family for their needs.

Dr. Young stated that if the parent, or other mature adult, is not available for advice and

'Tiger In Your Trunk' Sure To Make People Turn, Stare

DEAR HELEN:

I have a new car, well, new to me—and I want to tiger it up. My dad won't let me put racing stripes down the middle. Can you suggest something I can afford (not more than five bones) that will make people turn around and stare?

—NON CONFORMIST

DEAR NON:

How about a "tiger in your trunk? Get your girl friend to stitch up and stuff a long tube of tiger-cloth (synthetic fur is best but also more expensive); put a wire down the middle so the "tail" will curl, and fasten it inside your car trunk. When you drive down the street with a tiger tail lashing behind, you'll get stares, never doubt it! —H.

DEAR HELEN:

My sister is only a high school sophomore but she's running with a crowd (just lately) that smokes marijuana and even tries LSD. She says marijuana isn't addictive and LSD is harmless; besides she "only does it for kicks because if she didn't sit in on these parties the kids would think she was chicken."

I talked to my aunt, and she said it was just a phase and she had also heard marijuana was non-addictive. I think she is afraid of getting the law down on us.

I don't want to cause trouble, but I'm scared. If I tell my dad my sis will never forgive me. What shall I do? —AFRAID

DEAR AFRAID:

If you don't tell your dad, you may ever forgive yourself!

Marijuana is a first step to addictive drugs: a teen weak and way-out enough to try it has already proved she is a potential "main-liner." LSD harmless? Almost any magazine you pick up these days will tell you how frighteningly dangerous it is.

It's your duty to tell your father all you know about these "pot" parties, and it's HIS duty to alert the police. Possibly a good scare will turn this foolish chick into a wise "chicken."—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I wrote to you last year that my boyfriend had broken up with me (because he suddenly got noticed by the girls after I kinda "discovered" him). You said his head was turned and play it cool—when he sees what a good sport I am, he'll realize what he's missing.

Helen, you must have a crystal ball. Everything you told me in your letter came true! I was so upset and blue, and I found it hard at first, just waiting and being a good pal. But I was able to date other boys and my "ex" and I became the best of friends. We even told each other our problems.

Well, now I'm 16 and he's 17, and we're back together. In-between time we have come to understand boy-girl relationships better by dating others.

To make a long story short, I turned down his idea to go steady. None of that for me! I've got the boy I want but as long as I'm not wearing his I.D. bracelet, he'll keep wondering if I'm really his and he won't take me for granted again.

From now on, Madam Helen, you can handle all my business. Thank you, thank you, thank you! —LUV YA

DEAR LUV:

It's mutual. Thanks for plugging in my halo which has burned pretty dim lately what with all those potshots from the Peacemarchers and anti-stretch-pants league.

Note to young readers with the same problem: No crystal ball—just horse sense. Sometimes the only way to warm a boy's heart is to let him cool his heels a bit. —H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having bid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen Help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Herman Joseph Sanchez, 20, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court yesterday to felony possession of marijuana and to a misdemeanor charge of trespassing.

He was permitted to plead to the lesser trespassing charge, and to having the marijuana in his possession on Nov. 24. The marijuana trial had been scheduled for June 20.

WHAT HAPPENED?

Paris Audience Sees Dinner, Takes Ride

PARIS (UPI) —There was a "happening" here last night but the trouble was nothing happened.

A "happening" is the latest fad to hit Paris. Its sponsors call it free expression of ideas in a "different" forum.

Two hundred Parisians turned up at a local theater for the latest "happening" and waited patiently. Nothing happened, except that several actors ate a leisurely meal on stage.

Suddenly things were enlivened by an announcement. Buses, somebody said, were available outside to take the spectators to "the second act, at another location."

Six busloads set off, agog with anticipation. When the buses set them down at three widely separated parts of Paris, however, the spectators began to get suspicious.

"Where's the happening?" they asked.

Police, who had had an idea something of the kind might happen, broke up the resultant free for alls and dispersed all in sight.

Novato Art Show Slated For May 14

The North Bay Artists' "Triangle of Colors" art show will include displays of "non-objective and representational" art from artists from the entire Bay Area, in the Tresch Triangle at Novato Boulevard and Center Road on May 14.

Josephine Oberding of Novato, who is taking applications for exhibits in the art show, said it will include artists at work, and materials will be provided free to those of the public who want to "paint a picture to take home."

Folk Dancers In Mountain Play

The Kopachka Dancers, a Marin folk dancing group sponsored by the Mill Valley Park and Recreation Department, will appear in "Peer Gynt," this year's production of the Mountain Play on May 15 and 22 at Cushing Memorial Theater on Mount Tamalpais.

The dancers wear costumes from seven European countries —Hungary, Russia, Israel, Germany, Greece, Mexico, England and Yugoslavia — and perform authentic folk dances.

Originated by Dean and Nancy Linscott, the Kopachka Dancers meet Mondays, at 8 p.m., in the Mill Valley Community Center.

Planners To Meet

Larkspur Planning Commission, meeting at 8 p. m. today in City Hall, will consider a city council-suggested ordinance that garages with sloped driveways be required to have short barriers at the door openings to prevent runaway autos.

Bobwhite quail roost in compact circles with their heads out and tails toward the center. Alarmed, all members of the covey can fly straight off without colliding.

Anniversary Plans

The Corte Madera 50th anniversary committee, meeting at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Dolman Realty office, 201 Corte Madera Avenue, will hear progress reports from organizations planning events for the anniversary celebration June 10, 11 and 12.

Woman Hails Cab In Toledo, Gets Out In San Franoisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Somewhere in San Francisco is a visitor who likes privacy, church hymns, and really means it when she hollers "taxi!"

The woman, who asked to remain anonymous, entered a cab in Toledo, Ohio, gave a San Francisco address, and nonchalantly paid the $1,250 fare for the 2,800-mile trip.

Cab driver Paul Mertz, relieved on the long trip by Chester Reneau, said his fare also had driven by cab from Toledo to Detroit and Chicago recently.

Mertz said the woman spent most of the trip curled up asleep on the back seat, but when awake wanted the drivers to sing song, mostly church hymns. The party made three brief motel stops.

Mertz said the trip in the cab with Ohio plates created considerable excitement, especially in small towns.

"People looked at us as if we were nuts," he said, "and cops and highway patrolmen kept stopping us, asking to see our papers."

Watts Tax Break Passes Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — If the Senate and voters go along, owners of destroyed or damaged property in the Watts riot area of Los Angeles could get a tax break.

The legislation passed from the Assembly to the Senate yesterday. One part is a constitutional amendment, requiring two-thirds Senate approval and voter assent in November. It simply authorizes local taxing agencies to reassess property destroyed or damaged after the regular early March assessment date.

A companion bill, good only if the amendment is accepted, specifically mentions Watts and would reduce or refund assessments on property involved in the August turbulence, if the local assessor agrees.

Planners Tighten Pool Hall Permit

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday approved the establishment of a billiard parlor near the College of Marin after curtailing its proposed hours of operation and attendance by minors.

With commissioners Hugh Dougherty and Michael Praszker dissenting, the commission voted 5-2 not to rescind a use permit granted by the county zoning administrator to Alec Liu, operator of a chain of such parlors in the Bay Area.

Nearby residents had objected to having the parlor at 941 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Francis Burt, whose home is adjacent at 11 Stetson Avenue, told the commission the parlor would attract undesirable crowds, add to the traffic and parking problem and create a noise nuisance.

Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill said the parlor would cause fewer traffic and parking headaches than a commercial establishment, for which the building is zoned and which needed no use permit to operate.

To reduce the likelihood of noise at late hours, the commission set midnight as the closing time. Minors will be required to leave at 11 p.m. Only non-alcoholic beverages and refreshments may be served.

Liu expressed disappointment that the parlor could not remain open till 2 a.m., as originally planned. "There are many people who work late shifts that will be denied a little recreation," he said.

'Schizophrenia' Rises Over Parking Problem

Joann Marks asked architectural supervision for her plan to convert a home at Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Way into a shop. The property is one of six lots commercially zoned at the intersection, but where there are only two other commercial establishments, a beauty shop and an antique refinisher.

The commission finally voted to grant architectural supervision with a requirement that a parking plan be filed. Miss Marks, however, was expected to seek the variance.

Convict Again Tries Escape From Prison

San Quentin convict Burt Standley Parker became a five-time loser yesterday. The 33-year-old would-be escape artist made his fifth bid for freedom, but it never got off the ground.

He climbed into a truck and hid himself as it was parked outside the prison kitchens about noon.

A suspicious guard, acting on a hunch, suggested a search be made of the truck before it pulled away. An officer saw a pair of legs, clad in blue denim pants, sticking out from beneath a pile of cans.

The attempt at escape by Parker, a convicted robber serving a six months to life sentence, was similar to one he made in 1957. At that time, he was discovered before the truck he chose reached San Rafael.

Scouts Plan Annual Event At Art Center

Preparations are well ahead for the 1966 Scout-O-Rama sponsored by the Marin Council of Boy Scouts of America and scheduled for the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross, June 4.

This year for the first time there will be a competition for the booth and area demonstrations and for runoff winners in the Pinewood Derby, a popular race among home-made soap box cars.

Scouts throughout the county have begun selling tickets for the event, which will be staged between 2 and 8 p.m.

Amateur Radio Men Pick Disaster Chief

David C. Gilbert, 547 Virginia Drive, Belvedere, has been chosen to organize amateur radio operators in the Belvedere and Tiburon areas for emergency communications in time of disasters.

Sponsored by the American Radio Relay League, the hams' group will be prepared for emergency radio communications, using both fixed and self-powered radio equipment. Gilbert's assignment as emergency coordinator, is to call local meetings of amateurs, establish common operating procedures and arrange regular drill periods when the hams' personal stations may be mobilized under simulated emergency conditions.

THREE SCHOOLS

Judge Hears Teeners Support Jury Plan

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

Only three out of seven high schools responded last night to an invitation by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. to send students to discuss with him the possibility of forming teen-age "juries" to advise on punishment of juvenile traffic offenders.

But despite the apparent lack of interest of half the county's high schools, Judge Goldstein said he would press forward with his plan.

The "juries," which he hoped would represent a cross section of drivers under 18, would advise on punishment in individual cases after the case had been tried. Judge Goldstein conducts juvenile traffic court sessions at Marin Municipal Court each Tuesday.

Disappointment at last night's turnout quickly turned to enthusiasm as Goldstein listened for nearly two hours to the flood of ideas and suggestions from six bright-eyed and polite students from Redwood, Novato and Sir Francis Drake high schools.

The meeting, held in Goldstein's courtroom in the county courthouse, was postponed half an hour to see if representatives from the remaining schools—San Rafael, Terra Linda, Marin Catholic and Tamalpais—would turn up. (Tomales High School is not served by Judge Goldstein's court.)

What the judge lacked in quantity, he agreed afterward he got in quality. "I think this meeting with the youngsters has told me more about their traffic problems than the discussion I had last month with the principals," he said.

Students who met with the judge last night were Andre Bjornskov and George Burtram of Redwood High School, John Musser and Sherri Dunphy of Novato High School, and Sarah Lloyd and Tim Monaghan of Drake High School.

They agreed at the start they thought the jury idea was a good one. "Teen-agers tend to listen more to us than to adults," said Bjornskov.

The group suggested the juries be voluntary and be made up from names of drivers selected from a drum. They should also include offenders who had already been before the court.

"Serving on a jury should help kids to see the problem from both sides," said Musser. Burtram said it would make no difference whether he knew the offender or not.

Goldstein said the purpose of the juries was to get the teen-agers themselves involved in solving the problem of juvenile traffic offenders.

"We would be creating an atmosphere and a climate which could result in a drop in the number of drivers under 18 who habitually break traffic laws," he said.

His young audience agreed when he said he considered schools were not treating juvenile offenses as a problem.

"Teachers are not interested in whether we can drive or not," said one student. "They want to see us away from the premises as soon and as quickly as possible."

Most agreed they would respect adults more if they showed responsibility and stood by the laws they made.

Bjornskov admitted his own license had been withdrawn for 90 days at one time and added, "Judges have let me off the hook a couple of times, but that never had the effect on me as suspending my license and sending me back to driving school."

He suggested the courts should be more strict with juvenile traffic offenders, particularly after the first appearance. Musser thought some form of psychiatric tests might benefit teen-agers who were repeatedly caught speeding.

Other topics discussed were the need for driving instruction in school rather than on student's time, and the treatment teen-agers receive from police.

In answer to a criticism about some law enforcement officers, Goldstein told them, "Very few responsible adults dismiss what you say because you are teen-agers, despite what you might think."

FOUR INCHES TOO MUCH

Corte Madera Eatery Colors Changed

The Corte Madera Board of Design last night approved design of a Twin Castle Restaurant at Montecito and Redwood avenues, after applicant Franchise Investment Corp. removed a red, white, blue and yellow color scheme and substituted a brick-red tile exterior.

The board took under study plans for addition of a room to the town recreation center. The addition is proposed by the Corte Madera Lions Club for storage space and a small meeting room.

Waldo Sewer Bids Come In $70,000 Above Estimate

Public hearing was continued last night by the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District on a proposed sewer assessment district for the Waldo Point area, after the board heard the lowest of three bids for the district was almost $70,000 above the engineer's estimate of $108,233.

The hearing was continued to May 23.

Bids for construction of facilities which would serve the majority of houseboats and arks at Waldo plus the heliport to the north, were as follows: MGM Construction, Concord, $293,956; Fay Improvement Co., San Francisco, $189,996, and McGuire and Hester, Oakland, $178,178.

Since the bids were so much higher than the estimate of Whitlow, Hoffman and Albritton, district engineers, the whole subject must be reconsidered, reported Cyril G. Hansen, board president. He said the board asked the engineers to look into alternate methods of doing the work, and told property owners, who said they thought the job could be done less expensively, to give their suggestions to the engineers.

Written protests against the district were received from Donlon Arques, owner of Arques Shipyard, and George Kappas, owner of Kappas Yacht Harbor. Both objected the proposed assessment district would be "confiscatory," too expensive and not essential.

Tom Nowell and Alex Tellis, the latter representing Walter Landor, told the board they reserve the right to protest. Mrs. Tellis, who owns a block of property in the area, said she is considering entering a protest. No one entered objections from the Houseboat and Ark Dwellers Assn., said Hansen. Ten persons attended.

Congressman Sees Viet Coalition

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A congressman, back from a fact finding tour, predicts the Viet Nam war will be over sometime next year and that a coalition government will rule there.

Rep. Robert L. Leggett, D-Calif., speaking yesterday at a news conference, said the coalition may include the Viet Cong.

Leggett, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, praised plans for a general election in South Viet Nam and said he would offer "strong support for plans for self-determination there, including those of the Viet Cong."

Griffith Promises Tiger Return Bout

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Emile Griffith, the freshly crowned middleweight champion, plans to go to court today in an effort to keep the welterweight crown, too, after his close, controversial, upset conquest of aging Dick Tiger.

The 28-year-old king of the 147-pound welterweight division was a 2-1 underdog when he dethroned the 36-year-old Tiger as ruler of the 160-pound middleweight class on a unanimous 15-round decision last night in Madison Square Garden. The odds are even bigger against Griffith's chances of being permitted to hold both crowns.

If that doesn't come off, then Griffith might take on either Joey Archer of New York or Italy's Nino Benvenuti, the undefeated junior middleweight champion, in a middleweight title defense.

"Tiger can have the return bout, if he wants it," said the unmarked victor. "He was a good sport to give me the chance. I'm a good sport, too."

"I'd like the return," said the dejected Nigerian, who was knocked down for the first time in his 14-year career. "I thought I deserved the decision. It takes two to make a fight. I had to make the fight."

Holding to his pre-fight plans to keep on the move and tire his older foe, Griffith came on strong from the eighth round on. He dropped Tiger with a short right to the jaw for the only knockdown of the fight, and the ninth round knockdown was the difference in the scoring of the two judges.

Referee Art Mercante had it 9-5-1 in rounds for Griffith. Judge Frank Forbes had it 7-6-2 while judge Tony Castellano had it even in rounds, 7-7-1, but Griffith ahead on points 8-7. The knockdown, at about the two minute mark, earned the round and the extra point for the New Yorker.

Tiger got up at three and was saved by the mandatory eight count. Griffith followed with a left hook to the jaw that almost tumbled the 160-pound Tiger again. But as he headed downward, Tiger grabbed the 150½ pound Griffith and saved himself.

Tiger, ever stalking but holding his punches for the right opportunity, never got in the big blow. He was sluggish, wild at times, and rarely scored with combinations. In many rounds, he never got in a good punch

BUCS PLACE VERN LAW ON THE DISABLED LIST

Since that time he has been taking treatments, but "it just hasn't completely healed yet," said a club spokesman.

He was the Pirates' biggest winner last year with a 17-9 record. He had a 2.16 earned run average.

Packers Trade Veteran Back Moore To Rams

Green Bay Acquires QB And Lineman

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers of the National Football League traded Tom Moore, veteran running back, to the Los Angeles Rams today for two players and a high future draft choice.

Vince Lombardi, head coach and general manager, said the Packers acquired quarterback Ron Smith of the Rams and draft rights to defensive lineman Dick Arndt who has another year of eligibility at the University of Idaho. Arndt was picked by the Rams as a future choice in the fifth round of the college draft this year.

The deal gives the Packers a third quarterback behind Bart Starr and Zeke Bratkowski, taking up the slack caused when Dennis Claridge was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, the new NFL club.

PASSING WHIZ

The 23-year-old Smith, 6-foot-5, 220 pounds, was on the Rams' taxi squad last season but was activated for the final four league games. At the University of Virginia he rewrote the school's forward passing records.

Arndt is 6-4, 250 pounds, described by the Rams as "a can't miss prospect." He played one year at Stanford, then transferred to Idaho.

The 26-year-old Moore, a star at Vanderbilt, alternated at halfback and fullback in his six years with Green Bay. His record in league play listed 515 carries for 2,044 yards and 21 touchdowns. Last year he rushed only 51 times, the fewest number since his rookie season when he carried 45 times.

Bwana Bill Russell The Plantation Owner

Bwana Bill Russell, the well-known plantation owner and last of the Yankee traders in Africa, scored several important social breakthroughs for his people this week. To wit:

(1) He became the first 6-foot 10-inch guy in history to become a head athletic coach.

(2) He became the first bearded field commander since Ulysses S. Grant.

(3) He became the first non-Jewish coach in the modern history of the Boston Celtics, and the first mentor of native American stock—dating back to before the Revolution—that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has had since Cotton Mather.

IN SHORT, William Felton Russell has joined the power structure. He is a functioning member of the Establishment. We may confidently expect his application for membership in the National Assn. of Manufacturers, the Republican Party, and the League for the Sound Dollar, any day now.

HE ALREADY wears a satin-lined opera cape, which makes him look like the guy who came to collect the mortgage, or put the girl in the velvet swing, or sleep in coffins, but we may expect daily bulletins from him now on the perils of confiscatory taxes, the undependability of help these days and The White Man's Burden. He'll be on the board of the Suez Canal Co. His yacht will be under Panamanian registry and will be named the "S.S. Calvin Coolidge." He will, as Mencken says, have to part his name in the middle now—W. Felton Russell—tack a Roman numeral on it and pronounce it in French. He will sit on a park bench like Bernard Baruch and grumble about the commodities market. Fortune Magazine will honor him as the executive with the longest reach of the year and he will have to throw away all his Thelonius Monk records for clavichord concertos because Beacon Hill is not ready yet for "funk" and guys who dance the Frug.

BWANA BILL did it all with a 14.1 average from the floor, and a .573 percentage on free throws, which is a little more than a man in a blindfold can do, but not much.

IT IS ONE of history's great defections in the tradition of Robin Hood turning in his bow-and-arrow, or opening fire on the poor. Bill is the first guy in his line to own a plantation, not just hold the horses at one. All his life, authority has been to Bill just a beefy cop saying: "Keep moving, boy," or a guy in a bedsheet, or a hotel room in the other end of town from the rest of the team. Now, he's a rubber baron of Libera, West Africa, and he has common problems with, of all people, the Firestone Tire and Rubber family. And now, as new coach of the Celtics, HE'LL make the hotel reservations and, if the stock market's acting up, he may just take the Grover Cleveland suite and order up crackers and warm milk and the Wall Street Journal.

BWANA BILL will be at his sideline at the Los Angeles Sports Arena tonight — pulling the wings off the L.A. Lakers. If you would enjoy seeing a guy trying to climb the Matterhorn in tennis shoes and Bermuda shorts, you'll enjoy seeing the Lakers trying to beat him and the Celtics. They pay him $100,001 a year to separate little fellows like the Lakers from the basketball, and Bill is firmly of the opinion a man should give a day's work for a day's hire. After all, William McKinley, himself, said so.

Willie's Record Delayed

Mays needs only one homer to pass the 511 Mel Ott hit in his 22-year career, all with the New York Giants.

The 34-year-old center fielder, who hit his 511th Sunday in Houston, went hitless in three official at-bats yesterday in San Francisco against soft-pitching Ken Johnson of the Atlanta Braves.

"I'll get it one of these days," said Mays quietly. After all, no one hits a homer every day although Mays has connected six times already this season, which averages out to about one every other game.

NEXT CHANCE

Mays' next chance comes tonight against Tony Cloninger (1-1), who's given him only one homer since coming to the Braves in 1961. Bob Bolin (2-1) was slated to hurl for the Giants in place of Juan Marichal, still bothered by a slight muscle pull in his thigh.

"I wasn't thinking about his record," said Johnson, now 2-1. "I was just thinking about winning.

"I just try not to give him the same pitch twice," Johnson continued. "I have six pitches and I throw them from two different angles so that gives me 12 different pitches."

Atlanta manager Bobby Bragan said he thought Johnson's sidearm deliveries were most effective against Mays, who hit the ball well only twice and never high enough to get it out of the park.

"(Barry) Latman had pretty good luck against him, didn't he?" said Bragan about the Houston pitcher with the three-quarter motion.

"I have no comment on that," said Mays.

PINCHED NERVE

Actually, Johnson has tried to throw more overhand this season and was tossing over the top after the fifth inning when he pinched a nerve in his throwing arm. In the sixth Mays hit a screaming low foul down the left-field stripe and his final out was a low liner to left in the ninth.

Although the 8,259 who turned out at Candlestick Park were disappointed that Mays didn't connect, they did see home runs. In fact all the Atlanta runs came off two homers.

Lee Thomas smacked one over the right-field fence with two on in the third off starter and loser Bob Shaw (1-2). And Henry Aaron shot another into the left field seats with a man on in the fifth off reliever Bob Priddy, second of four Giants' pitchers.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Slumping Dodgers Blanked For Third Straight Game

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer

National League freshmen have devised a new prank to impress the pitching fraternity. It simply involves hazing those haughty upperclassmen, the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

Larry Jaster became the third pledge in three days to harass the punchless Dodgers, who are on the verge of tying a major league record for futility. The reeling champs haven't scored a run since last Friday and during that time they have been shut out three times. In each case the winning pitcher was a rookie.

Jaster, a 22-year-old lefthander, blanked Los Angeles last night on seven hits in pitching the St. Louis Cardinals to a 2-0 victory that extended the Dodgers' scoreless string to 30 innings. Although the major league record is 48 set by the Philadelphia Athletics in 1906, Los Angeles can equal the record of four straight shutout defeats if they fail to score tonight against the Cardinals.

The Dodgers, who have dropped into sixth place as a result of the disastrous hitting slump, had lost on consecutive days to Ferguson Jenkins, a 22-year-old right-hander, and Ken Holtzman, a 20-year-old part-time college student, both of the Cubs, before being embarrassed by Jaster.

Los Angeles threatened Jaster only once in the game when the rookie allowed three singles in the eighth, but a double play ball after Nate Oliver had singled broke the back of the rally.

The Cards reached loser Claude Osteen, now 3-1, for their only runs in the sixth. Lou Brock led off with a walk, went to third on Julian Javier's single and scored on Curt Flood's double. Javier came home on Charlie Smith's sacrifice fly.

Ken Johnson of Atlanta shut out the San Francisco Giants on three hits 5-0. Jim Bunning of Philadelphia blanked Pittsburgh by a similar score and Mike Cuellar of Houston made his first start a successful one by beating the Cincinnati Reds 2-1. The Mets and the Cubs were not scheduled.

Bunning struck out seven and allowed five hits in pitching Philadelphia's initial shutout of the season. He also contributed two singles to the nine-hit Phillies' attack. Richie Allen homered off loser Bob Veale and was credited with a second run batted in when Veale walked him with the bases loaded.

Cuellar, who previously had made four glittering relief appearances, surrendered an unearned run in the fifth inning and held the slumping Reds scoreless the rest of the way to register his second victory in two decisions. The young lefthander stopped Cincinnati on five hits and now has allowed only one earned run in his last this season. Jim Gentile singled home Joe Morgan with the winning run in the sixth inning off loser Joey Jay.

Tribe Still Unbeaten As McDowell Hurls 1-Hitter

BY HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It takes two to tango but the way Sam McDowell and Del Crandall were working on Kansas City, it looked more like a torrid twist with the Athletics in the middle.

McDowell, Cleveland's fireballing left-hander, hurled a brilliant one-hitter last night, beating the Athletics 2-0 and afterwards he gave most of the credit to his journeyman catcher, Crandall.

"I don't want to take anything away from our other catchers," the Indian ace said, "but Del has the experience. He came out to the mound twice and both times he caught things I was doing wrong."

McDowell, now 3-0, has had Crandall as his batterymate in each of his four starts and he likes the idea of pitching to the 36-year-old veteran.

"I shook him off a couple of times in the opener," said McDowell. "It's different now. We're working together in sort of an easy rythm. Like a dance team."

McDowell was waltzing along on a no-hitter for five innings against Kansas City before Jose Tartabull's looping single leading off the sixth broke the spell.

"I have to give him credit," McDowell said. "I had two strikes on him but he hung right in there. It was a sidearm curve but I didn't get the ball quite where I wanted it."

The hit was the only one the A's managed as McDowell struck out eight. Larry Brown drove in both Indian runs with a two-out, bases-loaded single in the sixth inning.

Elsewhere in the American League, Denny McLain hurled a four-hitter as Detroit blanked Minnesota 3-0, Chicago shaded Washington 3-2 despite a titantic home run by Frank Howard, and Boston handed New York its seventh straight loss 8-5.

Cleveland's victory was the eighth straight for the fast-breaking Indians and put them within one of the American League record for consecutive victories at the start of the season. The mark is nine set by the St. Louis Browns when they won the pennant in 1944.

McLain got home run support from Norm Cash and Al Kaline to beat the Twins for his third victory of the season. Cash walloped a bases-empty homer in the fourth and McLain protected the slim lead until Kaline's two-run shot in the eighth gave him some breathing space.

The loss was Minnesota's sixth in the last seven games.

Tom McCraw's ninth inning sacrifice fly beat the Senators for Chicago but Howard's homer stole the show. It was still rising when it zoomed into the mezzanine seats in deepest center field, 480 feet from home plate. It was believed to be the longest homer in the five-year history of D.C. Stadium.

Howard pooh-poohed the excitement over his shot. "I've hit 'em further," he said. "Would you believe it?"

Teammate Don Lock didn't. He was convinced it was Howard's longest shot.

"The reason this didn't look as long as the others was because it wasn't hit over a fence or flagpole," Lock said. "But he really smacked it."

McCraw's sacrifice fly brought Floyd Robinson home with the winning run after Robinson had walked and moved to third on Pete Ward's single. Ward's hit came after Washington catcher Doug Camilli dropped his foul pop for an error.

Carl Yastrzemski ripped four hits for Boston which handed New York its 10th loss in 11 starts. Ray Barker, Bobby Richardson and rookie Roy White all homered for the last place Yankees.

RUB-A-DUB-DUB, FOUR MEN IN A TUB

Two members of the San Pedro team keep right on paddling while four others start to get a dunking as the front end of their rubber boat folds up during weekend whitewater races on the Kern River. A small band of whitewater racers in kayaks and canoes pitted their skills against the cold waters in a 20-gate slalom and two and one-half mile downriver race. A spill meant dunking in the 42-degree water and possibly a bruise from an underwater boulder. (UPI Telephoto)

Didn't Try For Kayo, Says Emile

NEW YORK (AP) — "I never tried to knock him out — never, at any point," said Emile Griffith, moments after winning the world middleweight championship from Dick Tiger Monday night.

Not even when you had him down in the ninth round?

"No. The thought never crossed my mind.

"I just kept moving. I'm a boxer."

Griffith's dressing room at Madison Square Garden was a mob scene, as usual. Reporters and photographers fought with the champion's large and vocal coterie of hangers-on to get in, then screamed to make themselves heard in the din.

"It was the first fight in my life I was relaxed," Griffith exclaimed after the close but unanimous 15-round decision over the 36-year-old Nigerian.

"I just wanted to keep moving. I opened up when I had to," said the 28-year-old Virgin Islander, who already held the world welterweight title.

"I'll fight him any time," Griffith screamed. "Why can't he come to New York . . . why can't he?"

Howie Albert, Griffith's co-manager, said the fight plan was followed well.

"He was to keep jabbing and hitting. Tiger stalks and never throws a punch. Emile showed he can punch.

"I did tell him during the fight to keep working and keep pressing — Tiger might get tired quicker. Emile wasn't even breathing hard.

"Then in the seventh, Gil Clancy told him to open up."

Clancy is the Griffith's other co-manager.

Up to the seventh, Griffith was behind on points. But he won that round on two of the three officials' cards, floored Tiger with a short right in the ninth, and that was the turning point.

Big Ten Mark

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — Jimmy Rayl, former basketball star at Indiana University, holds the Big Ten Conference record for most points in a single game. Rayl hit 56 points against Minnesota in 1962 and equalled that mark against Michigan State in 1963.

FIGHT

It was the second time Tiger has lost the middleweight title. He dropped it to Joey Giardello in 1963 and regained it from Giardello last Oct. 21 in the Garden.

Griffith, the third welterweight champion to capture the middleweight crown, automatically vacates the lighter division title under the rules of the New York State Athletic Commission, the World Boxing Assn. and most other boxing bodies of the world.

"As soon as he won the middleweight championship, Griffith automatically was out as welterweight champion," said Gen. Melvin Krulewitch, the chairman of the New York Commission. "We will make plans soon to set up a welterweight tournament to determine Griffith's successor."

"We're not giving up the welterweight title," said Howard Albert, Griffith's co-manager. "We're going to the State Supreme Court Tuesday to seek an injunction to prevent the commission from taking away the title."

The World Boxing Assn. top five welterweight contenders in order are Luis Rodriguez, the former champion from Miami; Stan Hayward of Philadelphia; Brian Curvis of Wales; Manuel Gonzales of Odessa, Tex., and Curtis Cokes of Dallas. Ring Magazine's top contenders are Curvis, Rodriguez, Gonzales, Ted Whitfield of Amherst, Mass., and Cokes.

Sanders, 32, joins an international field that includes countryman Jack Nicklaus, the No. 1 money winner on the Professional Golfers Assn. tour in 1964 and 1965.

Lakers Favored To Tie Celts Tonight

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —A rejuvenated Elgin Baylor, apparently recovered from knee trouble, leads the Los Angeles Lakers tonight in an uphill drive to win the National Basketball Assn. championship from the Boston Celtics.

The Lakers, bucking a 3-2 series edge by the Celtics, have the advantage of a home court and a wildly partisan sellout crowd of 15,500.

A win for the Celtics would end the best of seven series and give them their eighth straight NBA title—a fitting climax to the career of Coach Red Auerbach. Auerbach has announced his retirement and will be succeeded by Bill Russell who will play and coach next season.

If the Lakers win tonight and a seventh game is necessary, it will be played in Boston Thursday.

In the fifth game Sunday night, the 31-year-old Baylor led scorers with 41 points and had 16 rebounds.

Russell played his usual good game and totaled 32 points and 28 rebounds but his performance was not good enough to offset the combined efforts of Baylor and Jerry West who had 31 points.

3-Hit Shutout For Garibaldi In Phoenix Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bob Garibaldi pitched a three-hitter as the Phoenix Giants trounced the Denver Bears 8-0 and moved into second place in the Eastern Division of the Pacific Coast League yesterday.

Frank Johnson went four-for-five for the Giants, including two doubles.

Meanwhile, the Tulsa Oilers — the leaders in the same division — defeated Indianapolis 5-1 to stretch their wnning streak to seven and then snapped the streak when they lost to Indianapolis in the nightcap 7-3.

Garibaldi struck out six, walked none and permitted only one Denver batter to pass first base. Garibaldi helped his team at the plate with a single and a run-scoring double.

Seals In Showdown Tonight With Victoria Maple Leafs

S.F. Tries To Stop Leaf Ace In Semi-Final

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP)—Player-coach Charley Burns of the San Francisco Seals thinks the way to beat the Victoria Maple Leafs tonight is to stop the scoring of Bob Barlow.

As the two teams enter the final game of their best-of-seven Western Hockey League playoff series, Burns has assigned a man to do it—Gerry Brisson.

Brisson, considered a fine offensive checking player, has seen little action since the last two weeks of the regular season because of a pulled thigh muscle.

The man he'll try to stop, Barlow, has scored six goals in the previous six games of the series, tied at 3-3.

In the nets for the Seals will be Doug Favell, instead of amateur Bob Gray.

"Gray played a helluva game Friday (when the Seals won 5-4 in overtime for a 3-2 series lead), but we don't think he could have as good a game the second time," Burns said.

"He doesn't have the experience. Favell has more. True, he started slowly, but then he got going.

"And now that he's had a game under his belt, and a practice with us, he'll be fine."

Burns said of Victoria's 13-game winning streak at home: "That bubble has got to burst now."

Portland Ties Up League's Other Series

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A rookie and a "penalty killer" combined to spark a come-from-behind 4-2 victory by Portland over Vancouver and send the semifinal Western Hockey League playoff series to a seventh and final game tonight.

The rookie, goalie Rick Charron, came up with 23 saves in only his second professional game. He came up from Rochester of the Eastern Amateur Hockey League.

Arlo Goodwin, who scored only three goals during the regular season and who gained the reputation of a "penalty killer," bagged two goals after Portland was down, 2-1.

Larry Cahan of Vancouver set a record for scoring by a defenseman with a goal in the first period with his 14th point of the playoff series. Howie Young, playing for Edmonton, set the record of 13 in 1962.

STEVENS

Here is some good news for striper strivers and sturgeon stalkers: The point of land at Santa Venetia, formerly owned and operated by Joe Nerviani, has been taken over by Leon Eddings and will henceforth be known as Buck's Landing. It is now open to the public as a launching site ($1.50 per launch). Tom Cusick called to say his dad and mother will live on the place, so here's wishing Buck's Landing success.

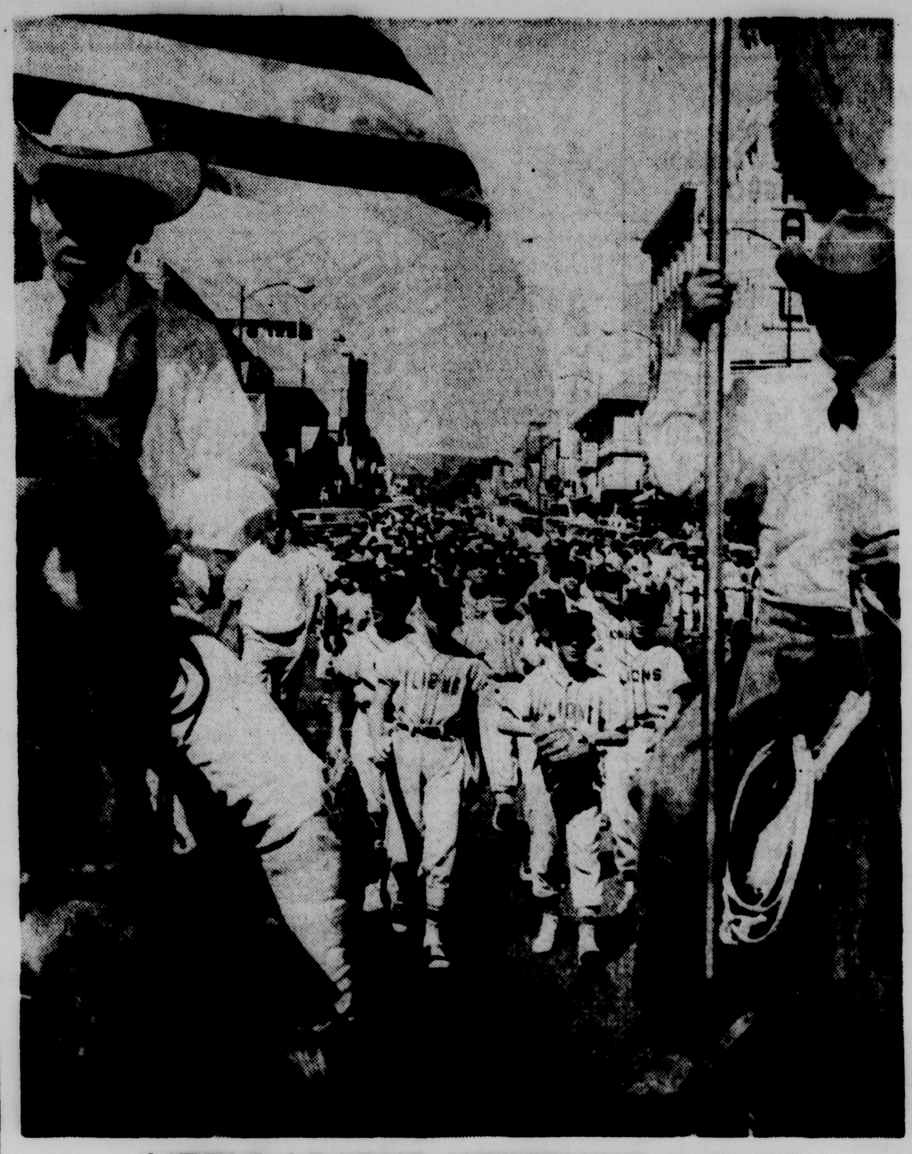
THE STAGE is all set for the popular Rio Vista Bass Derby to take place next Saturday and Sunday. From where I sit, prospects look good for a flock of stripers being weighed in for top honors. The winner of the fishing part of the derby will get himself a dandy engraved trophy and a swell barbecue set. The winner of the door prize will be presented with a color TV - stereo - radio combination costing $1000. Barring a very strong wind in that section, many sizable bass (probably over 30 pounds in weight) will be weighed in.

In addition to the fishing angle, there will be plenty of action for children and adults alike, including a gala parade, a pancake breakfast, dancing and a boat parade.

I hope the reader who called last week asking where he could catch crappies reads this: From Don's Bait House at Clearlake Highlands comes word that crappies are hitting like crazy in practically all sections of the lake. Catfishing is also good, and best by night. The black bass are starting to become active and several nice blacks have been taken both by tule-dippers and plug casters.

Unfortunately, I can't report good salmon fishing, but I understand the party boats are scouting and we should have word as to where the silver beauties have congregated later in the week. Rock fishing in the Point Reyes sector is fast and furious. The Reel Special out of Caruso's harbor at Sausalito reported they boated 760 rocks and 88 lings to 34 pounds.

Striper fishing locally is still in the doldrums, but Charlie Schmeltz reported the sturgeon fishing has been very rewarding. Top sturgeon for the past week, a 78-pound dandy, was landed by "Buddy" Moore of Oakland.



LITTLE LEAGUE HORSEHIDE PARADE

Led by horses to open the horsehide season, San Rafael Little Leaguers paraded through the city Saturday morning and then proceeded to the ball park where opening baseball games were played. Several other Marin County Little Leagues opened their schedules over the weekend with similar fanfare and ceremonies. (Independent-Journal photo by Richard Smith)

Top Women Skippers To Compete In Marin

A highlight of the San Francisco Bay Yachting season which opens officially on May 1 will be the North American Women's Sailing Championships to be held in local bay waters Aug. 28-Sept. 1. San Francisco Yacht Club, Belvedere, is host club for the finals.

Winning skippers and crews from the eight racing districts of the United States and Canada will meet for the final competition on the bay for the first time since the race event began in Boston in 1924. The women will be competing for the coveted Mrs. Charles Francis Adams trophy which was donated in 1925.

Quarter-finals, July 2-3-4, to select Bay Area representatives and semi-finals, July 16-17, to choose the standardbearers for the California area also will be raced locally, with Richmond Yacht Club the host club.

Cal-20 sloop-rigged fiberglass yachts will be used for the series here. The yachts are 20 feet length over-all, with an 18 foot waterline and a sail area of 196 square feet. Handling of spinnakers is a requirement of the championships. A skipper and two in crew are specified by the racing rules.

Probably Bay Area contestants include teams skippered by Sally Mathews, Rickey Treacy and Susie Wosser, San Francisco Yacht Club; Pat Guzzardo, Corinthian Yacht Club; Jocelyn Nash, Louise Vogelsberg, Richmond Yacht Club; Elva Flagg, Golden Gate Yacht Club, and Donna Gonzales, Lake Merced Sailing Club.

A San Francisco Y.C. committee working on plans for housing and hospitality as well as details of racing, boat procurement and finance for the national event is headed by Tom Martin, with Mrs. Colin Mason, Women's Auxiliary chairman.

Too Much Haste With Trumps May Cost Crucial Hand Control

Drawing trumps as quickly as possible may cost you control of the hand.

Opening lead — ♠ 4

Declarer took the first trick in dummy with the ace of sapes and led out the act of trumps and then a low trump.

It took only a minute to make this series of plays, but he'll hear about it for many years.

East took the second round of trumps with the queen and returned a spade to make declarer ruff.

Now South and East had two trumps each.

If South led another trump, East would lead a third spade to force out South's last trump. East would then have control of the hand with his last trump.

SLOWER METHOD

This leaves the ace of trumps in dummy, with two high trumps in the South hand and two low trumps in the East hand.

If East shifts to a club, South takes the ace, leads a trump to the ace, and gets back with a diamond to draw the last trump.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, April 26, the 116th day of 1966 with 249 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter; the morning star is Venus; the evening star is Jupiter.

John James Audubon, American naturalist, was born on this day in 1785.

On this day in history:

In 1865, federal troops killed John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, near Port Royal, Va., despite orders to capture him alive.

In 1962, U.S. Ranger IV space shot, fired three days earlier, hit the moon.

A thought for the day — British satirist Samuel Butler said: "A virtue, to be serviceable, must, like gold, be alloyed with some commoner but more durable metal."

Navy Recruits Three

Michael P. Gibbons of Inverness, Lawrence A. Kiessig of 113 Upland Circle, Corte Madera, and Russell G. Tucker of 40 Santa Barbara Avenue, San Anselmo, have enlisted in the Navy under the "Join Now, Go Later" program. They have a 120-day delay before reporting for training at San Diego.

Hearing Due On Bill To Pool Federal Loans

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—The president has sent to congress the draft of a bill that, in effect, would authorize the sale of vast amounts of government-owned loans to private investors.

The house banking committee will open hearings Thursday.

The proposed legislation would expedite the substitution of private credit for public, to the tune of several billion dollars a year. Administration officials talk up the program as a significant step toward reducing the government's role in lending.

A more compelling argument for the program—in the eyes of White House officials, at any rate—is the cosmetic effect it will have on the federal budget deficit. For accounting purposes, the budget treats the disposition of an asset such as a government-made loan as a reduction in spending. The sale of assets has the appearance of reducing federal expenditures and therefore reducing the budget deficit.

Actually, the legislation would not authorize the direct sale of loans from the government to private buyers. What is to be sold in the nation's financial markets is participation in pools of government loans—that is, certificates showing a share of ownership in a pool.

Interest is paid on the certificates from interest received by the government from the original borrower. And the certificates are retired at intervals as the loans in the pool mature and are paid off.

The pool approach has some definite attractions for the private investor. Risk is spread over thousands of individual loans, so that the default of one has little impact. And the certificates are virtually—but not directly—guaranteed by the government, since the disposing agency has the right to borrow from the U.S. Treasury to meet payments of interest and principal.

The pool method is by no means new. Several government agencies have been employing it for disposal for some time now.

The Federal National Mortgage Assn., popularly known as Fanny Mae, has been selling certificates on pools of FHA and VA mortgages it buys from hard-pressed lenders and builders. The Export-Import Bank, the agency which lends to promote exports, has been selling off its loans this way, too.

But the proposed bill would extend the certificate-sales authority to many other federal agencies. These include the Small Business Administration, the Farmers Home Administration of the Department of Agriculture, the student loan pro- Health, Education and Welfare, gram of the Department of and the college housing and public facility loans of the Department of Housing and Urban Affairs. Fanny Mae would serve as salesman for these agencies.

A significant feature of the legislation is a provision that will permit the disposition of loans even when the interest rate they bear is below today's going market rates. The agencies will be authorized to provide supplementary payments to make up the difference, as a subsidy to assure that the program works.

There will be some criticism of the proposal on the grounds that disposal of assets is only window-dressing—disguising but not really reducing the budget deficit.

Indeed, some experts say that asset disposal is more costly than direct borrowing by the treasury because certificates of participation must offer higher interest rates than, say, treasury bonds. Nevertheless, the legislation is expected to pass.

Profits Cut At Bethlehem Steel Corp.

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp. reported today that profits for the first three months of this year dropped about 19 per cent under the similar quarter of 1965. The drop was blamed on excess inventories built last year as a hedge against a steel strike.

Edmund F. Martin, chairman and chief executive officer, told stockholders at the annual meeting that net income for the first quarter totaled $36,682,000, equal to 80 cents a share compared with $44,132,000 or 97 cents for the corresponding period a year ago.

Martin said steel consumers had reduced orders "to work down the excess inventories which they had built up in 1965 as a protection against a possible steel strike."

Trans World Airlines Profits In Quarter

NEW YORK — Trans World Airlines operating revenues for March were $56,366,000, 22.8 per cent greater than March 1965 revenues of $45,892,000.

Total expenses of $54,752,000 represented a 17.8 per cent increase over March 1965 expenses of $46,484,000. Net income was $975,000 or 11 cents per share compared to a March 1965 net loss of $364,000, or 4 cents per share, adjusted for the out of period interest credit.

Moderate Loss Taken By Market

Here was the picture near the close:

Boeing spurted 3 points, Eastern Air Lines about 2½, General Dynamics more than 2, Zenith 2, Douglas Aircraft 1 and Metro-Goldwyn · Mayoer over a point.

Down about 2 were Coca Cola, Xerox and Amjrican Standard, the latter upset by the breakoff in merger talks with U.S. Plywood.

Texas Instruments and Motorola gained 5 each, SCM 3. Uup about 2 were Admiral, Magnavox, Fairchild Camera, Crane Co., Neptune Meter and Braniff Airways. Oxford Paper rose nearly 3.

Calumet & Hecla about 3 and Commercial Solvents 1½.

Kaiser Cement Earnings Decline

OAKLAND — Net earnings of Kaiser Cement and Gypsum Corp. were $1,317,000 in the first quarter of 1966 on sales of $21,502,000, according to Peter S. Hass, president.

After provision for preferred dividends, net earnings were equivalent to 13 cents per common share.

In the first quarter of 1965 the corporation earned $1,24,000, equal to 16 cents per common share on sales of $21,527,00.

First quarter cement division sales increased approximately 5 per cent over those of a year ago, Hass said, largely offsetting a drop in gypsum products sales due to the continued decline of housing starts in the west.

A native of Petaluma, he joined the bank there in 1926, later serving at Cloverdale and Gridley branches. He was promoted to officer status in 1937. In 1946 he was made assistant cashier and operations officer in San Rafael, and in 1951 district operations officer. A year later he was named assistant manager of the Santa Rosa office and became manager of the Montgomery Village branch in 1958. Two years later he returned to San Rafael as assistant vice president, advancing to vice president and manager in 1962.

The origin of the name 'California' is uncertain. So far as is known, it first appeared in a novel entitled "Las Sergas de Esplandian" . . . "The Adventures of Esplandian," written by Garcia Ordonez de Montalvo, and published in Toledo, Spain, between 1510 and 1521.

LAWRENCE J. BUTKUS of Lucas Valley has been appointed San Francisco district manager for General Electric's information systems marketing operation, with particular responsibilities is the sale of computers and data communications equipment. Zillman have been awarded University of California Extension certificates in real estate. . . . Franz Tirre, community manager at San Marin, Novato, reports 30 homes sold during the first three months of 1966, in spite of a general lag in real estate. During the previous quarter 28 sales were reported.

VIRGINIA CHIOINO'S Blue Bird of Happiness program for doing things for elderly people has gotten a helpful lift from Robert Jennings of Yellow Cab Co., San Rafael and his business manager Richard Campbell, who have agreed to a special transportation arrangement for Blue Bird tours.

INSURANCE. Fred A. Banducci, property and casualty underwriter, and Steen Schellenberg, life underwriter, are now working together (but in their individual offices) to give coverage in all fields of business and personal insurance.

DOCTORS Maurice Smith and William E. Drake, now at 1125 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, have purchased the Kentfield Medical Center Building at 908 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. After extensive remodeling and landscaping they will move their offices there. The transaction was handled by Dahl and Associates, realtors.

Far better than brand new. The landscaping is beautifully and completely done. Here is a really smartly designed home—walnut paneling, interesting use of stone, luxuriously tiled baths with gold fixtures. Gourmet's kitchen—it's only a year old and distinctive.

Sanitation Unit Calls Contract Legality Meet

A special meeting of the San Rafael Sanitation District Board has been called for tomorrow at 5 p.m. in the city hall to hear a county counsel's opinion on the legality of a contract awarded to a Kentfield contractor.

The contract was awarded Friday to Neil T. Burton, low bidder, for construction of a chlorination station at the Loch Lomond pumping station and an air gap system at the main treatment plant.

The second low bidder, Peters and Robinson of San Rafael, protested the contract, contending Burton did not have a general engineering license when he bid.

Plane Search Goes On Today In Colorado

The Civil Air Patrol continued its search today in the Southern Colorado mountains for a private plane carrying a Corte Madera man and three other persons.

Aboard the plane was Lee F. Levine, 34, of Corte Madera, who is president of Glacier Industries Inc., San Francisco. The pilot was Robert L. Dukes of Oakland, and other passengers were Wilson Tsang, a Chinatown businessman, and Caroline Cox, a Richmond schoolteacher who was trying to get to St. Louis.

Levine's father, Phillip Levine of San Francisco, said the single-engine Cessna 210 left Oakland just after noon April 18, after Dukes filed a flight plan showing Pueblo, Colo., as the destination. About 7 p.m., he landed in Durango, Colo., for fuel.

At the Durango airport, they asked a Frontier Airlines pilot where Miss Cox could catch a plane for St. Louis. The pilot suggested either Pueblo or Albuerque, N.M., and the pilot radioed for weather information on the way to both places.

Only clue as to which way they decided to go, said the elder Levine, was that a highway patrolman and a rancher heard an airplane engine a few minutes later over Wolf Creek Pass, which is en route to Pueblo.

Phillip Levine said the quartet never reached Pueblo, but were not missed until Lee Levine failed to show up for an appointment in Denver Wednesday. The CAP search started then and has continued since with no success.

The senior Levine said his son recently moved to Corte Madera from Tiburon, but he was unable to give his son's address.

Passenger cars account for more than eight out of 10 motor vehicles registered in the United States says the Automobile Legal Association.

Mill Valley Commissioners Set City Park Field Trip

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation commissioners agreed last night to make a field trip May 14 to parks in Sunnyvale, Los Altos and Palo Alto to get ideas for improvements to Boyle Park and Project 17 in Mill Valley. The commissioners will meet at 9 a.m. at the Community and Youth Center.

Dean Rhodes, chairman of the Southern Marin Kiwanis Club agricultural and conservation committee, told the commission the club would like to help clear park land area of the proposed Allen Subdivision in Blithedale Canyon, and install trails. The commission favored such a project, reported Chairman Jerome C. Hauke.

Commissioners are looking for candidates to replace Dean N. Meyer, recently elected to city council, and asked that interested persons notify Mrs. Julie Butler, secretary, at City Hall.

The commissioners asked that Mayor Albert E. White proclaim July 2, 3 and 4 days of festivities honoring Independence Day, and heard from G. W. Robertson that the event will be self-supporting this year.

Motorcycle Hits Auto; Rider Hurt

Dale Sweet, 22, of 720 B Street, San Rafael, suffered multiple bruises and a cut lip last night when his motorcycle collided with a sport car in the westbound lane of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Sais Avenue in San Anselmo.

Dennis M. Day, driver of the car, said he had slowed, signalled and was turning left onto Sais Avenue when the cycle struck the left rear side of his car, police reported.

Belgian Driver Is Charged In Deaths Of 10

WALEGEM - ASSE, Belgium (AP)—A driver whose bakery truck killed 10 children has been charged with manslaughter and drunken driving, police said today.

The truck rammed into a group of about 20 school children yesterday as they were studying road safety on a sidewalk in this village near Brussels.

Police said the truck driver, Emile Tibeout, 43, had ended his work at a bakery and was returning home when the accident occurred.

Planners Cut Yacht Harbor In Tiburon

The Tiburon Planning Commission last night deleted a waterfront small yacht harbor and replaced it with a "port of call" harbor during a work study session on the Downtown Plan.

Stephen H. Nash, chairman, said the port of call harbor was inserted to discourage long-term anchorage. The session was the last one before the commission hold a public hearing on the plan May 16 at 8 p.m. in Del Mar School.

Pay yourself.

NOW PAYING 4.15% WHEN HELD TO MATURITY

If you're like most people, you don't have a lot left over after the bills are paid. Often nothing at all.

In that case, you're exactly the kind of person the Payroll Savings Plan was invented for.

All you do is tell your employer to set aside a certain amount every payday toward the purchase of a United States Savings Bond. You won't feel the pinch, because you never see the money. In fact, you'll probably forget all about it, until you discover how much you've salted away.

It's a great way to assure a comfortable tomorrow for you and for your family. It's a great way to help Uncle Sam work for tomorrow's freedom, as well.

So why don't you make good the promises of an "I. O. ME" every payday? Sign up now for Payroll Savings where you work.

For your information: Series E Bonds pay back $4 for every $3 at maturity, are protected against loss, provide tax advantages, can be purchased where you work or bank. For current income on your investment, ask about Series H Bonds.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Is The Media Getting Old?

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —Is network television news, hardly out of its infancy, already beginning to show signs of middle-age spread? There are disturbing and pronounced signs that this is so.

With an exception now and then, there is, to the constant viewer, the unmistakable impression that the news documentaries are becoming more and more bloodless, dated, remote and "impartial" to the point of vacuity.

Not that any literate person would depend on television as his main source of information —but the news and public affairs departments have come to have special importance to the person who hopes, however vainly, for video improvement.

For with the current absurd state of television entertainment, it can truly be said that outside of public affairs programs there is little even to justify the existence of the medium—except for the technical developments which put it here, and may yet save it.

When one thinks of the days of Edward R. Murrow, one blanches at the current blandness that seems to pervade public affairs shows. When one considers the extraordinarily tepid commentary that now emanates (if at all) from networks, one is disheartened. Any halfway respectable newspaper office shows of the spice of life.

When one remembers the regularly scheduled prime-time public affairs show of a few years back, which allowed for more timely in-depth reports of spots developments, one is further dismayed. And when one recalls that just several years ago, public affairs programs were the highlights of the television season—winning the top show award, for instance, with the Berlin documentary "The Tunnel"—one is mystified at what has happened since.

This season, for example, such specials as the Barbra Streisand and Frank Sinatra hours have taken the play away from the documentaries.

In a sense, the Viet Nam war, and the home front arguments about it, have provided video news departments with a reasonable point in claiming th3y are doing their utmost. In terms of focusing attention on the war and working hard to report it, there can be no question that this is true. If they are having trouble clarifying the situation—well, so is almost everybody else.

But Viet Nam is not the only public affairs subject in the world that deserves exceptional treatment, although it sometime seems to be on television. There are a million and one other things happening in the world, as any reporter knows—and they are subjects worthy, often, of intense, passionate treatment, not only in a human and emotional sense, but, more importantly, intellectually as well.

Television, for instance, is a good subject. Yet there is probably nothing that television covers worse than itself. And, for that matter, almost every documentary that one sees nowadays on the networks seems light-years late in getting around to the obvious.

I don't think there is any conspiracy or any cowardice that is causing this public affairs letdown. I think it is primarily a case of the ontime underdog of the networks—the public affairs people—now resting on the prestige and laurels earned a while back.

It is impossible for a good newsman to run out of subjects. What can happen, however, is that when he begins to sit on those laurels, he stops digging, and falls back on new twists for his old, tiresome (after a while) causes. Et tu, TV?

Senate Passes Rural Poverty Grant Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has sent to the House a bill authorizing federal grants for rural poverty planning.

Despite a plea from Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to put its foot down on "Great Society" spending, the Senate yesterday passed the bill by a 43-21 vote closely following party lines.

Clerk Applies For San Quentin Postmaster Job

Applications closed today for the job examination, announced by the Civil Service Commission early this month. The salary will be $6,888.

According to Mrs. Ragle, "about half a dozen" people have applied for the postmastership, which has been vacant since Mrs. Valate T. Ellason of San Rafael retired in March of last year. Mrs. Ragle has been running the office.

A formal examination will be scheduled for applicants later.

Sausalito Late Books Come Back

Thirty-five Sausalito book borrowers were forgiven last week at the Sausalito Public Library when they returned overdue books with no questions asked and no fines to pay.

In all, about 40 books were returned, reported Mrs. Kay Berteau, head librarian, the longest overdue being one taken out a year ago.

"Forgiveness Week helped clear up some of our records," said the librarian, who added: "We're happy to get our books back, since book lending is the main function of the library."

Retirement Age Cut For Police

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate has sent to the governor a bill that would reduce from 55 to 50 the minimum age at which local police officers can retire on half pay.

The measure by Assemblyman Richard J. Donovan, R-Chula Vista, passed 26-3 yesterday.

Sen. Joseph A. Rattigan, D-Santa Rosa, said implementation of the bill is entirely up to local communities. A similar bill for firemen was signed into law in 1963, Rattigan said, but no city has yet used it.

The town of Friant was originally called Converse Ferry and later Polasky. In the early 1920s, the name was changed to honor Thomas Friant, who, with T. S. White, father of Stewart Edward White, western writer, formed the White and Friant Lumber Company.
